NEW DANCE RECORD SET

Heleno Mayer, 21, Cleveland, Ohio, salesgirl, above, has smashed the non-stop dancing record established at New York by Alma Cummins of Texas. In a Cleveland dance hall Miss Mayer danced 50 hours—the previous record and then danced 2 hours and 11 minutes longer! She wore out three girl competitors, four dancing partners and five pairs of stockings. She changed her shoes twice. Police were summoned to keep back crowds of spectators. Inset shows the new champ during the twenty-ninth hour of the endurance test.

OFFICER BLAMED FOR MINE WAR

Refused to Send Troops to Herrin, Witness Says

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (Associated Press) — With two state officials—Adjutant General Carlos E. Black and Colonel Sam. Hunter—each accusing the other of responsibility for the failure to prevent the Herrin mine war last June, the state legislative investigating committee recessed last night until next Wednesday to consider further steps in its investigation.

Colonel Hunter yesterday directly contradicted the testimony of General Black, who was before the committee Wednesday, and declared he had repeatedly asked the adjutant general to send troops to Herrin.

To one such plea, he testified, General Black replied: "Let the dam fools go to it. If some of them get killed off maybe they will quit."

Colonel Hunter swore he asked for troops time and again in every telephone conversation with the general over a period of several days.

Colonel Hunter also declared that ten days or two weeks after the legislature ordered the investigation, General Black had asked him to alter his written report.

Hunter testified that Sheriff Melvin Thaxton, of Williamson-co had repeatedly been advised to swear in deputies to keep the peace but had declined, asserting that he could control the situation.

When the trouble started on June 21 with the killing of two non-union men in the morning, and two union men in the afternoon, Thaxton could not be found, Hunter said, and he declared he advised General Black of that fact.

General Black, he testified previously had told him to "lay down on that sheriff and make him do his duty. I won't send troops unless I have a request from the civil authorities."

"I repeated," Colonel Hunter testified, "that the sheriff could not be depended on to suppress disorder, and I told him the sheriff never would call for troops."

INTERCOLLEGIATE BODY IS TO BE ORGANIZED

CLEVELAND — Steps to form a permanent intercollegiate association were taken here last night at a banquet given to 800 former students of 116 colleges and universities of the United States, delegates to the tenth annual conference of college alumni and alumnae secretaries and the alumni magazines association.

A resolution authorizing Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war, to appoint a committee to draw up plans for formation of a permanent organization such as he had described to the delegates was unanimously adopted.

Opening sessions of the conference were devoted to papers and discussions on alumni magazines. The conference ends Saturday.

"REDS BACKED BY BIG FUND"

Samuel Gompers Makes Charge Against Garland Organization

"REVOLUTIONARY AIDE ONLY"

Labor Leader Declares Test Has Proved Real Character

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Because the workers' education bureau, an organization of the American Federation of Labor, is not "definitely committed to a radical program," the American Fund for Public Service Inc., has refused to include the bureau among beneficiaries in its outlay of the $500,000 fund turned over to it by Charles Garland of Boston, out of the rejected inheritance from his father.

Samuel Gompers, president of the labor federation, in making public a letter from the Garland fund organization refusing a request for a $100,000 fund for the educational bureau, charged in a statement that the Garland money was being used to "bring together an interlocking network of pacifist and revolutionary organizations of more or less extreme character." The request, Mr. Gompers said, had been made as "test" to determine to what purpose the Garland inheritance was being put.

By the statement in its letter that it would support only such labor educational movements as fit workers "for carrying on the struggle for the emancipation of their class in every sphere," the American Fund for Public Service, Mr. Gompers declared, had "disclosed itself in its true garb as a proponent of revolutionary effort."

An investigation of the organization, Mr. Gompers said, had served to link it with "perhaps fifty or more of the leading pacifist, pro-Bolshevik and pro-Soviet organizations" and to "reveal to some extent the ramifications of revolutionary propaganda and influence in the United States."

NEW YORK — (United Press.) — The Garland fund of $500,000 is not in the hands of revolutionaries or pacifists and its administration is along the lines prescribed by the donor, Roger N. Baldwin, one of the directors, declared today in reply to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Charles Garland, who inherited the money but refused to accept it and turned it over to the American Fund for Public Service, instructed the directors to extend aid to all enterprises "for the benefit of mankind."

"We are administering the fund along that line," Baldwin said.

LEAPS TO DEATH FROM WINDOW IN INFIRMARY

CLEVELAND. — Samuel Levine died in city hospital today from injuries sustained when he jumped from a window on the third floor of the infirmary building at Warrensville yesterday afternoon.

Levine, 35, was being treated at the infirmary for mental disorders. He had been a patient there for several weeks. During the temporary absence of an attendant he climbed out onto the window ledge and leaped twenty feet to the ground below.

NEEDSTADT HAUNTED

MOWBRAY, England. — Mrs. Frank Gray says a bloodstained old bedstead in a heap of rubbish in her yard is haunted. It draws a handsome ghost that carries a violet scent and another, a repulsive one, that bears a pistol and a candle, she says.

NEW MAYOR

Frank E. Doremus, Democrat and ex-congressman, has just taken office as mayor of Detroit, having been elected in a normally Republican city by a majority of 56,000.

CHILDREN FOUND THRU HUNCH

Warren Youngsters Without Food, Water for Two Days

WARREN, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Two of the three Warren tots found late yesterday after a forty-four hour search during which police and firemen dragged the Mahoning river and one hundred citizens scoured the countryside, today were in bed under the "care of a physician while the third, a three-year-old girl, was happy and nearly normal as she told the story of her long imprisonment in a closet of a vacant second floor store room.

The children, Margaret Williams, 5, her brother John 3, and Theresa Sanford, 3, were found locked in a tiny closet under a stairway in an unoccupied second story room. They were weak from being without food or water nearly two whole days and nights, choked from breathing dead air and frightened so badly that none of them could talk at first.

The children were found by M. V. Buzard, freight service Bureau man and Mark Hammond, bookkeeper, who went into the second story floor room to follow out a "hunch" Hammond had that the children were somewhere in the building. They heard a tapping and then a childish whimper. Opening the closet door they found the children huddled together on the floor.

Home, washed and fed, Theresa told how John had bought a nickel's worth of candy and then running from the other two went into the vacant room and into the closet. Theresa and Margaret followed. The door swung shut and they were trapped.

FRANCE OFFERS CONCESSIONS

Allied Agreement Expected at Conference Today

WOULD CUT INDEMNITY SUM

Paris Proposed Plan Lessens Burden of Debt

PARIS — (Associated Press) — A re-welding of the inter-allied front is expected to result from today's meeting of the Franco-Belgian ministers here at which a reparations plan drafted by the French experts will be compared to one drawn up by the Belgians.

It is understood that the two differ slightly, inasmuch as Premier Poincare thru Louis Loucheur, and the Belgian government thru its representatives in London, have sounded the British government as to its attitude toward the question. It is believed, therefore, that the discussions today should prove fruitful.

The French plan, according to Le Matin which prints a resume of the draft, leaves the total German indebtedness at 132,000,000,000 gold marks, but provides for a method of payment which would lessen the burden of the debt and at the same time accelerate the installments during the next few years.

PRIORITY FOR BELGIUM

Part of the German debt, mobilization of which is declared to be urgent, corresponds to the sums required for the reparation of devastated France, Italy, Jugo Slavia, Rumania, with priority for Belgium, plus money spent by that country on the same account.

Also included are the costs of the American and allied armies of occupation, reimbursement for the premiums paid to German miners and various lesser items.

The remainder of the first 50,000,000,000 marks, adds Le Matin, may either be cancelled or postponed.

The essence of the new project, the newspaper continues, is to divide the German A. and B. bonds into two parts, one of which, amounting to about 40,000,000,000 gold marks, would be mobilized within ten years by means of loans. The other part would be split up into annual payments according to the need of the British treasury.

The series of C. bonds would be used in furnishing France with a means for paying off her foreign creditors, that is to say principally America, since England, relieved of her annual interest payments to the United States, might be ready to make substantial concessions. This arrangement would also be highly advantageous to Italy.

There would remain to France a sum in C. bonds which might be used to negotiate a concession in certain coal mines.

CABINET TAKES UP SUGAR PROBE

Harding and Official Family Delve Into Soaring Prices

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — President Harding and his cabinet today took up the sugar situation as New York dispatches told of a new high price level for Cuban raw sugar.

Acting Attorney General Seymour, returning from a hasty conference in New York with District Attorney Heyward and other officials, took with him to the cabinet meeting a mass of data on the sugar price investigation the justice department has been making.

COMMISSION REPORT

At the same time the report to the president of the tariff commission which Mr. Harding directed to find out whether the tariff was responsible for the price increase, was postponed until next week because of a sharp division in the commission. Some members, it was stated, believe the tariff is in part responsible while others hold it has nothing to do with the rapid rise in sugar prices.

The commission's meeting with Mr. Harding has been deferred in an effort to reconcile the differences.

The data Seymour was prepared to give the cabinet was understood to deal with the handling of sugar imports in New York. Whether it forms the basis for government action was to be discussed by Mr. Harding and his advisers.

BLUE SUNDAY BILL OFFERED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — A drastic blue Sunday bill which would stop every form of commercialized entertainment, including movies and baseball on the Sabbath was introduced today in the Illinois legislature.

The accident occurred about a mile this side of Mayville and some of the women were seriously hurt.

Mrs. James Dunlap, Mrs. T. S. Tracht and Mrs. Kirk, all of the Thomas-apts, were in the car when it slid from the pavement into the ditch on the north side of the road.

Another car driven by a man whose name was not learned in attempting to pass the Kirk car at a high rate of speed, struck the rear of the machine and forced it off the highway. As it fell into the ditch it turned on its side.

Mrs. Dunlap's back was slightly wrenched, she told George A. Coe, restaurant man at Central and Market-sts, but the others were unhurt. Coe said he and his daughter saw the car which struck the Kirk car, pass them going at a high speed.

MASTOID KILLS WOMAN

COLUMBUS, Wt. — Lela (Fuller) Dustman, wife of R. J. Dustman, local correspondent of The Associated Press, died in a local hospital early today from effects of a mastoid operation late in February.

The operation was thought to have been successful and she appeared to be fast recovering until early this week, when signs of recurrence developed.

BISHOP, TWO NUNS PERISH

Fifty of Company Rescued—Details Lacking

MEXICO CITY — (Associated Press) — The bishop of Belize (British Honduras), two nuns and seventeen other passengers were drowned when a motor boat carrying them to Payo Obispo, Territory of Quintana Roo, Mexico, sank on Wednesday during a sudden storm, according to delayed advice reaching here this morning. Fifty other persons are reported to have been saved. Further details are lacking.

TEN INJURED IN WRECKS

Auto and School Special in Crashes Near Akron

AKRON — (Associated Press) — Ten persons were injured early today in automobile and interurban wrecks between here and Cleveland. Seven of the injured were Cleveland negroes, occupants of an automobile which went over an embankment at Chillicothe's Corners on the Akron-Cleveland highway.

The other three were on a special N. O. T. interurban carrying 40 Akron school pupils to a musical concert in Cleveland. The interurban car crashed into the rear end of a milk train which was loading at Fullerton Station.

Sturmman Rufus Hutchisson, Akron, was seriously hurt. David Monaght, 16, Central High pupil, suffered a broken leg. They were brought to Akron hospitals. Another pupil was less seriously injured in the wreck.

The negroes, authorities say, were joy-riding in a car belonging to E. J. Counts, Cleveland colored lawyer. Among those injured were Frank Mundle, Albert Bell, Reta Lesene, Billy Mills, Melvin Bell, A. Davis and an unidentified man. They were brought to People's hospital here.

WOMAN IS HURT

Auto With Three Overturned in Ditch Near City

Three women narrowly escaped death late Thursday when an automobile in which they were riding was knocked from the Mayville rd when struck by another car, and turned over into a ditch.

The accident occurred about a mile this side of Mayville and some of the women were seriously hurt.

Mrs. James Dunlap, Mrs. T. S. Tracht and Mrs. Kirk, all of the Thomas-apts, were in the car when it slid from the pavement into the ditch on the north side of the road.

Another car driven by a man whose name was not learned in attempting to pass the Kirk car at a high rate of speed, struck the rear of the machine and forced it off the highway. As it fell into the ditch it turned on its side.

JOHN J. D. FRIEND OF EMPLOYEES

Plans for Improving Lot of Rockefeller Workers

ACTIVE IN RELIGIOUS WORK

Polished Out by Forbes in Discussing Rich Men's Sons

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK—(Special) — How are sons of rich men showing up in comparison with their fathers? The popular impression is, of course, that rich men's sons rarely amount to much.

But is this really so? True, it is unusual for a towering giant or genius to have a son of equally gigantic caliber. Yet I doubt whether the sons of rich men, as a whole, do not make quite as creditable a business record as the majority of non-rich sons.

The only son of the richest man in the world admittedly isn't the business genius his father was, yet young John D. Rockefeller applies himself more diligently to his daily duties than the average person, and has exhibited no little initiative and originality along lines which appeal to him most, namely, plans for improving the lot of the employees of Rockefeller companies, and religious and philanthropic activities.

Henry Ford is now usually spoken of as the second richest man in the world. Those who now best declare that Edsel Ford is a quite exceptionally able young man, possessing as much vision and ambition as his father and no less industrious and enthusiastic a worker. I am told, in fact, that Edsel understands financial matters very much better than his father.

Carnegie had no son. Schwab has no son. Gary has none. Eastman has none. Many other conspicuously prominent and rich men also are sonless.

The late J. P. Morgan was the son of a rich man who certainly did big things. Harriman's son, W. Averell, applies himself so intently to work that his family often becomes alarmed. Not only so, but young Harriman is exhibiting talents of a high order. It is quite within the range of possibility that he will one day become as big a man in the steamship business of America as his father became in rail transportation. The second generation of Hillis and Huntington certainly are not all cliphers.

What I really started out to talk about, however, was the showing being made by second and third generation men in Chicago, a subject to which I recently referred in a way that caused a loyal second generation Chicagoan to drop in to see me in order to give me more information. He declares that the record of most, not all, of course, of the more prominent second and third generation men is far more creditable and impressive than the public probably realized.

As a matter of fact, not a few of the men who are doing some of the biggest things in Chicago are sons or grandsons of prominent forebears.

The Swift packing business, about the third largest enterprise in America, has been developed more by the second generation than it was by the original Swift. The same has been true of Armour and Company and a third generation Armour, A. Waldson Armour, grandson of the original Phil, is recognized as a real comer. A third generation McCormick—the third Cyrus—has a wonderfully fine record and is today Vice President in charge of all the International Harvester's Manufacturing plants in this country, Canada and Europe.

The dry-goods house of Carson, Pirie, Scott and Co. is in the hands of very capable second generation men. A. W. Harris, the banker, is the son of the founder of this notable financial firm. The gigantic McClurg Publishing business has been greatly developed by the present Ogden T. McClurg. The Ryerson Iron and Steel family is in its third generation; so are the Clow, Carpenter, Poole, Houghton, Blair and (Solomon) Smith families.

Perhaps this list will move other cities to check up on how their second generation men are measuring up.

ROSTER OF WAR VETERANS GIVEN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BRADFORD, Pa.—Because only eight of the 134 Civil War Veterans who made up Encampment No. 7, Union Veteran Legion, are still living, and only three of this number are able to leave their homes, the roster has been presented to the McKean County Historical society for preservation. The encampment has not been able to hold a meeting for over a year.

The encampment was made up of veterans who flocked to Bradford with the discovery of oil in this region soon after the close of the war. They represented more than 100 regiments, and most of them had been wounded in action. New York contributed 41, Pennsylvania 12, Ohio 12, Wisconsin 12, Massachusetts and Vermont three each, Illinois and Connecticut two each, and Indiana, Kansas, Missouri and Michigan one each. They played an important part in the oil development of the region and to this day the remaining members are numbered among the most respected residents of the community.

HEALTHY TO PAY BIGGER FINES

Sweden May Adopt New Plan Dealing With Criminals

INCOME IS MADE BASIS

Plan is to Equalize Punishment for Offenders

STOCKHOLM—(Associated Press)—An unusual system of adapting criminal fines to the income of the offender, as well as to the seriousness of the crime, is one of the unique provisions in the proposed revisions of Sweden's criminal statutes which has been recommended to the government by the Criminal Law Commission.

Attention often has been called to the unjust operation of fines fixed within narrow limits. To the wealthy man such a fine in no way served as a deterrent, while to the poor man it often becomes a punishment out of all proportion to the seriousness of the crime.

The principle of the proposed amendment, which will doubtless be accepted, is that the punishment by fine for any given offense shall work with the same effectiveness upon persons of various economic status. There are to be two bases for fixing the fine, the novelty being that the amount is divided up into daily payments, instead of being lumped in one sum. The degree of enormity of the crime is to be indicated by the number of days used as multiplier in the calculation, while the other factor, the sum to be paid each day will vary with the financial means of the offender. These amounts may vary from 25 cents to $250.00 a day. The number of days shall not be less than one nor more than ninety.

ANOTHER PRINCIPLE Another humanitarian principle in this provision is that the payments need not be paid in unbroken succession, though there must be at least ten daily payments a month for any given conviction.

Whenever failure to pay the fine ensues, the sentence may be commuted to imprisonment, though under the proposed amendment consideration will be given by the court to the question of whether such failure came through contempt, negligence, or was involuntary through unavoidable financial difficulties.

Another legal novelty in Sweden recommended by the Criminal Law Commission is the treatment of those who have violated the law of the land in such a way that the offense does not involve moral turpitude or personal dishonor. Instead of being imprisoned or sentenced to penal servitude, such offenders shall simply be placed in detention or "custodia honesta," the Swedish term for this punishment being "arrest." The periods of "arrest" may vary from three months to life, and the person thus detained shall be cared for in institutions especially provided for them.

LAST OF SERIES OF SCHOOL PLAYS TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the last of the series of school plays to be given at Central Auditorium, Friday evening. "The Judsons Entertain" is the name of the play and it will be given by the Junior class.

The offering is made interesting and amusing by the various complications which arise over the visitors who come to the home of a rising young genius. He is "broke" and after rich relatives come to his aid it is possible to clear up the situation.

Included in the cast are: Misses Constance Mayer, Jane Tinker, Alicia Ludwik, Sybil Evans, Mary Churchill and Louise Betschell and Robert Shaffer, Howard Shepard, Fred Roberts, Joe Fritz and Donald Friedley. Fred Roberts is president of the class.

CABLE TO TALK TONIGHT ON IMMIGRATION PROBLEM

Congressman John J. Cable will speak to members of the Y's Men club on phases of the immigration problem at the weekly dinner of the club to be held Friday night at the "Y" dining hall.

Recently elected officers will be installed and reports of the membership campaign now being conducted will be presented.

RED LIGHTS DEMANDED

Ohio Power company officials told police Thursday night they would see that red lights were put up where Bellefontaine-av is being repaired near the D. T. & J. R. R., after complaints had been made.

FRIDAY, THE 13TH, JINX DAY FOR SUPERSTITIOUS

Not Many In Lima Worry About It, However

Today the double jointed, wall eyed Jinx, who, it is alleged is also hammer headed, shambles thru the streets of Lima in an effort to convert honest burglars to the theory that Friday the 13th is no Christmas day.

If the opinions of those citizens who expressed themselves on the subject were representative, the malevolent old wretch had to bring samples with him, to succeed in getting many recruits to the mourner's bench. But opinions differ. Some admit that the 13th was no day to set great store by.

Miss Clara Boon, at the Norval Hotel, who sells cigars and indulges in pleasant philosophy, admits that she is not in sympathy with Friday the 13th as an institution.

"I really hate to admit it," she explained, "but I'm off the 13th, especially when it happens on Friday. Once taken a position on Friday the 13th that started a long and somewhat serious illness. Since that time I have been afraid of it. Lots of people are superstitious who will not admit it," she added. "We have traveling men who refuse absolutely to be quartered in Room 13."

F. A. Frobase, contractor by profession and fisherman and hunter by avocation, declares that Friday the 13th is the best calendar combination of the year in which to catch fish.

TELLTALE SYMPTOMS OF WOMAN'S ILLS

Every woman, who suffers from backache, headache, dragging down pains, nervousness, irregularities, displacement, irritability, or dependency should realize in such symptoms some derangement of her system which should have attention before some serious ailment develops. These conditions are often evidenced by a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude and sleeplessness. For nearly fifty years Lida E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such conditions, and it is now recognized every where as the standard remedy for women's ills.—Adv.

good day for fish, but the best duck hunting a Lima sportsman ever had, occurred on Friday the 13th, in the year 1913. He came suddenly upon a flock of ducks so thick he could not see the water. The ducks rose after he had shot several times but for several minutes none fell to the ground. Then they began dropping and Frobase discovered that their descent had been delayed by a layer of live ducks at the bottom of the flock, he explained.

Theatrical folks do not speak so cheerfully of Friday the 13th, local hotel employees state. Recently called to Frobase the best way to catch a fish.

Friday the 13th is not only a member of a troupe playing at a local theater refused to take Room 13, altho it was the only room vacant at the time.

Pete Wisner, of the Congress case, regards the 13th complacently. He was born on the 13th and up to date has seen nothing especially unfortunate in the occurrence. He encounters many who are superstitious about the day, he admits, more than one would suspect, he adds.

The most severe setback Friday the 13th as a national Jinx day sustained was at the testimony of James E. Heffner, manager of the Lima Auto club. The club was organized 13 years ago with 13 members on April the 13th, he stated. Chauncey Lufkin was president and Fred Cuthbert, secretary.

Today the club has more than 1,300 members indicating that its inception on the 13th day has not hurt it in the least.

Further significant evidence on Friday the 13th was offered by Dr. P. I. Tussing. "What about the 13th, Doc?" he was asked.

STRONGS CALL AT COMMERCE ROOMS

New Quarters in Steiner-Bldg
Inspected Thursday Night

FAVORS GIVEN TO VISITORS

Offices Open for Visit by Others on Friday and Saturday

New quarters of the Board of Commerce on the first floor of the Steiner-bldg., N. Elizabeth-st., were officially opened to Lima business men and their wives Thursday evening at the house warming.

A reception committee headed by Mark Koller, welcomed the visiting public which was shown about the offices. Women members of the staff escorted visiting wives and men guests were shown the new home by members of the reception committee.

Tulips were presented to women visitors and there were cigars for the men. Attention was called to the approach of spring thru the display of flower garden seeds received from Washington thru Congressman John L. Cable.

Music during the entire evening was furnished by Miss Dorothy Stolzenbach, pianist and Mrs. J. J. Pettler, violinist.

THOSE IN CHARGE
The organization of the Board, which moved from its old quarters in the Business College-bldg. about two weeks ago, consists of J. E. Morton, manager of the board, together with other departments; Miss Marietta Day in charge of the general office, Miss Rosemary Christy in charge of publicity in the general office and Miss Lorena Peit in charge of the telephone switchboard.

The Better Business Bureau, in offices across the hall, in charge of R. E. Ashley, assistant manager. Miss Martha Rothlisberger is stenographer for the bureau.

Work of the Credit Bureau is handled by Miss Lela Shult and Mrs. Mary Ross.

Also the formal opening occurred Thursday evening the office will be open Friday and Saturday and the public is invited to call and inspect the new home. Suggestion boxes have been installed and visitors are invited to submit ideas for increased service that may occur to them.

BRYAN AGAIN HITS AT EVOLUTION

Delivers Address Before West Virginia Legislature

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—(United Press)—Evolution excites the sensibilities and encourages the worshiper of the god of ease, William J. Bryan declared in an address before the West Virginia legislature here today. Bryan's speech was made in connection with a bill pending before the lawmakers which seeks to prohibit the teaching of the Darwinian theory of evolution in the public schools of the state.

"We do not ask," the Congressman said, "that teachers paid by taxation shall teach the Christian religion to students, but we do insist that they shall not teach, under the guise of either science or philosophy, anything that undermines faith in God, impairs belief in the Bible or discredits Christ."

Declaring the evolutionists should not be allowed to teach a scientific interpretation of the Bible, Bryan asked:

"What right have the evolutionists—a relatively small percentage of the population—to teach at public expense, a so-called scientific interpretation of the Bible when orthodox Christians are not permitted to teach an orthodox interpretation?"

NEWLY ORDAINED PRIEST WILL CELEBRATE FIRST MASS IN LIMA, SUNDAY

Rev. John Bruin, ordained Sunday at Toledo by Bishop Samuel Stritch, will celebrate his first solemn mass Sunday morning at 10 at St. John's Catholic church, 739 S. Main-st.

Rev. Bruin is a son of Patrick Bruin, 172 Dana-ay. A reception will be held at the Bruin home Sunday evening following a dinner at 5 o'clock at the Argonne hotel. The dinner will be attended by members of the parish and out of town guests.

ORATORY SUBJECTS GIVEN TO FIVE DELPHOS SENIORS

Subjects which each of the five Delphos high school seniors will speak on April 27, when an elimination contest to decide who will represent Delphos in the Northwestern Ohio Oratorical contest at Kenton May 11, were announced Friday.

They follow:
Earl Valentine, "Essentials of Modern Progress;" Margaret Williams, "Challenge of America's New Day;" Clove Shaffer, "Making Life Worth While;" Otto Wortman, "Progress of the Colored Race;" George Moorman, "The Coming Citizen."

A total of 21 towns have announced that they will send a delegate to Kenton to compete.

One of the five seniors named will represent Delphos.

CABLE SENDS GARDEN SEED TO DELPHOS HIGH SCHOOL

A supply of garden and flower seeds, supplied thru the courtesy of Congressman John L. Cable, was received at the Delphos high school Friday.

Each pupil received a package of the various kinds of garden making necessities in the form of seed. Appropriation for the seeds was made at the Delphos high school at Delphos Friday.

13 Ballots By 13 Auto Men, Friday, 13th

Thirteen members of the Lima Automobile Dealers association met at the Norval Hotel, Friday the 13th and elected officers and directors for their organization. Thirteen ballots were cast for all offices.

Art Plummer was chosen president; Ed Hawisher, vice-president and William Howell secretary and treasurer. Directors elected to be representative of the various price classes of cars are: Art Plummer, D. D. Jones, Lynn Zimmerman, Ed Hawisher and Charles Black.

The dealers adopted a constitution and by-laws prepared by Melvin Light and George H. Quail, legal advisers for the Lima Automobile club.

HARVEY MAY QUIT LONDON POST

Expected to Resign to Aid in 1924 Campaign

G. O. P. CONFERENCES HELD

Leaders Are Laying Plans for Election Battle

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—A comprehensive survey of the Republican outlook for 1924, has been made during the past few days in a series of conferences here involving first or last most of the titular leaders of the party.

Not only men and policies but such questions as the state of the party treasury and the choice of a 1924 convention city have had active consideration in these discussions. No definite conclusions are announced but the net result has been to still further advance the season of pre-convention activities already far ahead of the usual political calendar.

Thus far the conferences here have brought together such figures as National Chairman John T. Adams, just back from a trip abroad; and a number of senators who keep a close connection with all matters of party policy. Within a few days two former national chairmen, Charles D. Hilles of New York and Will H. Hays of Indiana, are expected to confer with others interested in the party's welfare in New York.

HARVEY TO RETURN
Within a few weeks Colonel George Harvey, now serving as ambassador at London is expected to appear in the scene.

The state department expects Harvey to return to his post in London after the brief leave for which he now is coming to the United States but it would cause no surprise here if he resigned some time during the coming winter to take an active part in the campaign.

So far as policies are concerned, the administration proposal for the American membership in the international court just now holds first rank in the discussions of 1924. Secretary Hughes recently discussed the proposal at great length with Senator Watson of Indiana who pointed out in some detail the attitude of a group of anti-court Republican senators.

The Indiana senator made his call at the state department after he had gone over the whole subject with Republican Leader Lodge and at about the same time the court was discussed at a long conference between President Harding, Secretary Hughes and Secretary Hoover.

The president also has conferred with Treasurer Upham, but the subjects they discussed have not been revealed.

THOUSAND CHICKS MAILED DAILY AT LOCAL OFFICE FROM ALLEN-CO HATCHES

Lima post office is receiving and mailing an average of 1,000 baby chicks per day, G. P. Whemiller, superintendent of mails, estimated Friday.

Chicks form but a part of the increasing volume of parcel post business thru the local office, he stated. Many of the chicks are shipped from the hatcheries in and near Lima, although many of them come from surrounding towns to take advantage of better mail service thru the local office.

The chicks are mailed in cardboard crates with a northole cut in the carton for each chick. Shipments were received Friday morning from Elida and Cidersville.

SUPERVISOR SPEAKS ON ART HISTORY AT "Y. W."

Miss Mary Brumby, supervisor of art in the public schools, gave an address on "Modern Art" Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Brumby traced the history of art from the beginning thru the three periods up to the present and gave a short sketch of the life of John Sargent one of the greatest artists of the present day.

Rev. E. Bruce Jacobs, pastor of Calvary Reformed church, will have charge of the second Bible lesson to be given Friday at 6:30 p. m. at the "Y. W. C. A." He will speak on "Church History."

SCULPTOR WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT "LIMA'S NEW HALL"

The Board of Commerce Friday morning received a communication from a sculptor in Pittsburgh, Pa., requesting details of two bronze statues soon to be built in connection with the "new Memorial Hall" at Lima.

Officers of the Board are looking for the "new Memorial Hall."

LIMA MAN ELECTED
George A. Brown, 1175 S. Central-av, was elected clerk of the Sidney Presbytery of the United Presbyterian church Friday at the spring meeting held in Kenton. Rev. J. D. Snodgrass, of Toledo, was elected moderator.

Officers of the Board are looking for the "new Memorial Hall."

LABOR SHORTAGE ACUTE IN OHIO

Lima Industries Included in Federal Report

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY

Local Plants Find Difficulty in Obtaining Men

Return of prosperity finds Ohio facing an acute shortage of skilled and unskilled labor, according to an announcement made by the Department of Labor, at Washington, Friday.

Although all industries are affected, the steel mills are hardest hit, the report states.

Lima is among the cities named where labor shortage is reported. Cleveland industry is reported running at full tilt. However, Youngstown steel mills, Akron rubber plants, Cincinnati machine tool factories, Toledo automobile plants and factories in Columbus, Dayton and Canton, as well as Lima, are short of help.

SHORTAGE GROWS
For months the federal reports have been indicating a shortage of skilled mechanics in the building trades, but not since the war has the shortage extended into every industrial activity of the state, including agriculture.

A serious shortage of farm labor is imminent, the employment service of the Labor Department at Washington predicted Friday.

So great is the demand already that in some sections of the west a shortage is apparent.

The whole industrial employment situation in the country shows a "healthy and robust condition," the service statement said.

"This is producing an optimistic outlook for the steady decrease of unemployment in every section of the country."

Expansion in nearly all industries, noted in February, continued thru March, the labor statement said. This was chiefly noticeable in the building trades, "as in nearly every section of the country, large building programs are either in course of construction or their commencement is anticipated by the middle of April."

OUTLOOK BRIGHT
The outlook for the iron and steel industry is "exceptionally bright" and

RECRUITS WANTED FOR HAWAII

Men Needed Also for Panama and Domestic Posts

Boat sails for Hawaii from New York, April 23. The same craft stops at Panama.

Lima youths and better, who are anxious to see the world thru a port hole, or mule back or on foot may have their chance by consulting Sgt. Geo. C. Sanger, who is in Lima on recruiting detail. He may be seen at the Post office.

Sergeant Sanger states that the boat to leave for Hawaii and Panama needs the following able bodied Americans: 7 engineers; 7 mechanics; 15 doughboys, otherwise infantrymen; 9 artillerymen for coast artillery units, and 2 engineers and one man for the quarter master's corps.

At Hayes, in the Fifth corps area needs two medical recruits and two men for the laboratory department. The 10th infantry stationed at Ft. Hayes is short 22 men. Positions are open at Fort Thomas, Kentucky, for 85 men, and at Fort Harrison in the 11th infantry, 156 privates are needed. The 3rd Field Artillery at Fort Harrison is open for recruits to the extent of 157 men.

Sergeant Sanger extends cordial welcome to join the army.

FARM LABORERS FIGHT CUT

Six-cent Reduction, Four Added Hour, Cause Strike.

TEN THOUSAND MEN OUT

Former Wages of $6.25 Per Week Paid

LONDON — (Special) — With their backs against the wall, agricultural laborers of England are fighting strenuously a reduction of six cents per week in their wages and an increase of four hours in their working week.

Ten thousand men either have struck or have been locked out in the premier English farming county of Norfolk, 1000 are out in Suffolk and the trouble threatens to spread throughout the country.

From the standpoint of wages and hours the English farm hand has been at the bottom of the economic scale, altho upon his work often depended the very bread and meat and milk that Englishmen use. Only during the war was their lot improved when government wage boards were organized and their wages doubled.

But these boards were done away with after the war and matters of wages and hours were left to agreements between the farmers and their men. The result is there are agreements in only 13 out of 65 farming districts.

THOUSANDS STRIKE
In Norfolk the men had been getting six pence an hour and have been working a 50-hour week, making about $8.25 per week. When the farmers offered them 5-1-2 pence an hour for a 54-hour week thousands struck. Other thousands were locked out.

Farmers and their town knifolk have been trying to feed the cattle and perform the other imperative farm chores during the dispute. It is not believed the fight can last long because the men have no resources to fall back upon.

A deputation of members of the farmers' unions and the workers' unions sought government assistance from Prime Minister Bonar Law. R. B. Walker, secretary of the Agricultural Laborers Union, pointed out that the status of the workers, compared with the cost of things, was lower than before the war. There were counties where the men got ten cents an hour.

WORLD MENAGED BY BLOOD FEUD

British Lawmaker Writes on Franco-German Wrangle

SEES DANGER IN INVASION

Paris Should Have Sought Burying Hatchet, He Says

(BY E. P. MOREL, M. P.)

LONDON. (United Press). —

Let us now investigate the special claim to "security" advanced by the rulers of France today, and the support it receives from the present British government under the pressure of their extreme anti-German supporters. The French imperialist invasion of Germany now seeks to base itself upon that demand for "security," but when M. Poincaré first set his troops in motion, he declared that his object was "Reparations."

Who believes that today? And why should we now believe that the purpose of his policy is "security"? If this object of French imperialism has been "security," the rulers of France would have acted during the past four years in an exactly contrary way to the way in which they have acted.

They would have sought to bury the hatchet; to put an end to the blood feud. Instead, they insisted upon the kind of political settlement which would give them vengeance, but which could not by any possibility give them security. Had their policy been "security," they would have accepted, since Versailles, the repeated German offers to rebuild the devastated areas, instead of rejecting them.

AFRICANS ON RHINE. They would not have stationed African troops on the Rhine. By all these acts, and by countless more which could be cited, they have deliberately sought to exacerbate relations with their Eastern neighbors.

But it may be urged, the rulers of France are persuaded, however wrongly, that "security" was not obtainable by a policy of conciliation, and the Anglo-American guarantee having failed, and Imperial Russia having disappeared, nothing was left for them to do but to seek security through the political dismemberment and economic enslavement of their old foe.

"Security," then, through destruction; and the main plea advanced being that the German people, even after the partial dismemberment of Germany arranged for under the Treaty and since aggravated by the Upper Silesian decision of the "League of Nations" is still 20,000,000, more than the population of France.

Now if this plea is accepted as valid, every nation whose neighbor has a larger population than its own is entitled to demand that this neighbor's political subjugation and to take steps to enforce it if it can; and per contra, the more populous nation is entitled to prevent itself being subjugated by waging a "defensive war" against its less populous neighbor. "I must destroy my neighbor, lest he destroy me."

Here is the philosophy of international anarchy in its completed form. Let us look at this plan, that because there are 60,000,000 of Germans and only 40,000,000 of Frenchmen Germany must be dismembered and politically destroyed.

DIFFERENCE IN POPULATION. They wish to convey the impression that this difference of 20,000,000 in the population of the two countries means that, militarily speaking, France is manifestly weaker and in that sense must destroy lest she herself be destroyed. The boot is on the other leg.

It is not a case of France having, for military purposes, only 40,000, 000 against Germany's 60,000,000. It is a case of her having a minimum of 100,000,000 to draw upon against Germany's 60,000,000. France has 43,500,000 people under her sway in Africa and 22,500,000 in Asia. And she has now applied to all these peoples her laws of military conscription.

She is raising and training great native armies for service in Europe. She reckons in the next five years to have a permanent army of 800,000 Africans for war in Europe, permanently stationed in Europe, if need be.

PROPOSAL TO ABANDON SUNDAY SCHOOL MADE

OMAHA, Neb. — Proposal to abandon Sunday school for children and substitute instead a week-day school that staggered the delegates at the fourth educational conference of the Episcopal church here today was in the hands of a special committee whose report Monday is awaited with considerable interest.

Rev. Dr. William E. Gardner, secretary of the religious education body of the National Council who yesterday proposed the change was upheld by the Right Rev. Ernest V. Shaylor, bishop of Nebraska, who added to the furor, by declaring the church ready for radical innovations. He likened the Sunday school work attempts to make a living tree out of a dead stump.

NAME LOVED MORE THAN LIFE

Suicide Threatened to Prevent Son Marrying Divorcee

DISGRACE SEEN IN MATCH

Story of Former German Chancellor Brought to Light

BERLIN. (United Press). — Bismarck, the iron-handed chancellor of the German monarchy, loved his family name and his family honor more than he loved his Fatherland—more than he loved his own life.

The great statesman threatened to take his life—leaving his country to work out its own salvation without his guiding hand—because his son, Herbert wanted to marry a woman whom Bismarck felt would besmirch his family name.

These facts are brought out in the memoirs of Prince Philipp Eulenburg, about to be published here.

Eulenburg has accumulated letters sent to him by the young Bismarck, which reveal the story of how the strong-willed chancellor threatened to commit suicide because he "laid more stress on hindering the marriage than he did on the entire German reich, his work and the rest of his life."

Young Bismarck was torn by two threats on his fiancée also declaring she would kill herself if he did not marry her.

The woman was Princess Hatfeld Trachenberg. In 1880 she became the talk of Berlin society following her separation from her husband. At the same time rumors filled the press that she was about to marry Herbert, the chancellor's son, who at that time was counselor at the German embassy in Paris.

BISMARCK FORBADE

Old Bismarck, strong-willed in domestic affairs as well as in affairs of state—forbade the marriage, but his son refused to listen to his ultimatum. The elder Bismarck declared he would not have his son marry a divorcee, especially one who belonged to a family which had opposed him politically.

The princess waited in Venice in the spring of 1881 for her divorce. Young Bismarck wrote his friend on May 6, 1881, that the princess had written him that she could not live without him, declaring she would kill herself if he did not come and take her away. But his father refused. On April 28 the young man wrote his friend that his father had told him "with tears streaming from his eyes that he was firmly resolved not to continue living if this marriage took place."

On May 6, he wrote "My father has told me that if it is absolutely necessary for me to go to Venice he would go also to speak to the princess for he laid more stress on hindering my marriage than on the entire German reich, his work and the rest of his life."

These conflicting threats forced Herbert to threaten suicide himself. On May 13 the princess had, thru newspaper articles and ill-will been compromised and "I hold it as my duty to marry her, if I listen to my desires. But my father still disputes this, and I cannot do other than surrender my honorable desire and obey my father's will. But how shall I live thru this?"

ACTRESS LEARNS DOZEN ROLES

Can Appear in Any of Them at Moment's Notice

MEMORIZES 60,000 WORDS

Began Career by "Dramatizing"
Mother Goose Rhymes

NEW YORK—(Special)—Is the ingenue ill?

Has the leading lady eloped with the villain?

Is the tragedienne's appearance prevented by a temporarily incurable attack of temperamentalitis?

In such contingencies what can a producer do?

It's simple! He sends for Virginia

Milliman, "the understudy girl."

Miss Milliman, a native of Florida, invaded the land north of the Mason-

Dixon line half a dozen years ago.

She is distinctly a specialist. In one season it's a matter of course for her to have two dozen roles at her tongue's end. When a feminine member of one of the productions where she is official understudy is anywhere but in her custom at the given moment, a hurry call is made, and before anyone in the cast knows just what has happened, Virginia

Milliman is standing in the wings, smiling sweetly and saying, "Here I am."

MEMORIZES 60,000 WORDS

Recently this remarkable young woman memorized 60,000 words, the feminine roles of four Broadway productions, which, if she cared to recite them, would take exactly 16 hours and 40 minutes.

"Some conversation," observed

Miss Milliman, "Of course there's more of a task than merely memorizing the words. First I look over a given role page by page and photograph it on my memory. Then I read the lines over and over until I feel the part—live it—and have attuned my ear to every spoken word.

"My mother says I used to dramatize Mother Goose. I commenced acting at the ripe age of three summers and have continued ever since.

MAKES STAGE

"My first fling at understudying was in Jacksonville, Fla. The leading lady of a stock company was ill—temper plus temperment—so, as I knew the lines partly—sketchily—I "jumped in where angels fear to tread." A most ambitious part—the lead in Divorçons. They told me that I read every line effectively," she laughed reminiscently. "but I couldn't have said myself whether or not I said a single word."

"I've understudied whole productions of such stars as Jane Cowie, Florence Nash and Madge Kennedy.

Usually I've appeared in every role in the plays at least once in a season.

At the beginning of the season, I have exact duplicates of the star's gowns made. Oh, endless work, it seems, fitting, standing and patiently awaiting the completion of the wardrobe.

"It's very important. I well remember one frantic matinee when I had to improvise an evening frock from a Spanish shawl and fasten the star's slippers to my arches with adhesive tape!"

DONAHEY VETOES BILL
CREATING NEW JUDGE

COLUMBUS — Trumbull-co must operate its common pleas court without an additional judge. Governor Donthey decided when he vetoed the bill of Representative James W.

Holloway, Republican, of Warren, which would have created an additional judgeship.

Citing the message he sent to the legislature immediately after his inaugural and in which he declared that "the state had twice as many judges and court officers as it actually needed," the chief executive pointed out that the laws provide judges may be "borrowed" from small counties where there is little work and sent to larger counties such as Trumbull where congestion exists in the courts. If counties would avail themselves of this privilege, he said, there would be little delay in the administration of justice.

The veto was taken in many quarters as an indication of what the governor's action might be in connection with other measures designed to increase the number of courts or the judiciary, when they are submitted to him.

ADMINISTRATOR NAMED

Sam W. Kemp, Spencerville, was named administrator of the estate of Charles T. Andrews, Shawnee-town, at a hearing in probate court Friday. Estimated value of the property will total $20,800, according to documents filed. J. A. Miller,

George Helser and George Daugherty are the appraisers.

Are You Fat, Bony? It Means Something, Analyst Asserts

The north half of your face is not your fault—your parents' is. You that—but you can't be held to strict accountability for the south-era half, because it is of your own making. That's what Miss Rallin

Wallington, human analyst, says.

Miss Wallington is at the Argonne, where she will conduct classes and give free consultation in human analysis. She tells employers whom to hire and lovers whom to love. And she tells parents what little Johnny will be when he grows up, if he doesn't insist on playing in the street when traffic is heavy.

Miss Wallington's analysis of human beings is based on the structure of the body. Dogs have three or four dozen classifications, but human beings, according to Miss Walling-ton, have only five.

You are alimentive like Chief Justice Taft of the supreme court, you are muscular like Theodore Roosevelt, you are osseous like former President Wilson, or you are thoracic like the flushed little flapper next door who just thrills and thrills over—well, anything.

Miss Wallington can tell by looking at you which class you fall into just as you can tell a poodle dog from a Russian wolfhound.

And for the same reason that you would not buy a poodle dog for a watchdog, Miss Wallington can tell you that you ought or ought not to be a school teacher or a bank president or a locomotive engineer or an interior decorator.

"It's very simple," Miss Walling-ton said. "Scientists divide flowers and birds and animals into classes and know the conditions under which each class thrives. We do the same thing with human beings.

We merely teach them how to adapt themselves to circumstances."

"No two children are alike, and we try to teach mothers how to treat and educate each child to its best advantage. The slightest stimulation may make a great vi-oluntist of a boy whom all the pro-ding in the world could not make into a sixth-rate lawyer. Yet father will insist on trying to make a lawyer out of his son because he himself wanted to be a lawyer.

"We simply point out to each person his strong points and weak points and advise him on how to adapt himself."

CHILD BURNS TO DEATH

TOLEDO — Esther Zawodny, 6, died of burns received when she climbed on a chair to inspect a brood of incubator chicks, her clothes catching fire from a hot plate.

SERVICE EXTENDED

FINDLAY — Plans for revision of the mail service here will extend rural routes 150 miles and add 500 families to the list of those receiving service.

DEATH IS FACED WITH SMILE

Cleveland Bandit Calm When Electrocuted at Columbus

DIES UTTERING PRAYER

Permitted to Share Last Meal
With Another Prisoner

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—With perfume of roses and carnations from a huge bouquet, the gift of an unknown woman to a condemned murderer, permeating the air of the death chamber at the Ohio penitentiary, Stanley Forber, 35, Cleveland bandit, early today paid with his life for the murder of Patrolman Grannison Koehler, shot to death in a gun duel here November 28 last.

During the final hours of his existence, Forber admired the flowers, brought to the prison by a woman who left without revealing her name and when a few minutes after midnight the death march to the execution room started, he carried them with him.

As attendants strapped his wrists to the arm of the electric chair, Forber took care that they would not brush against his bouquet. Just before the black mask was placed over his face, his frightened vision fell on the flowers and he smiled. A minute later as the current surged thru his body, his grip contracted and then relaxed and the flowers fell to the floor.

After two applications of current he was pronounced dead at 12:10.

IDENTITY REVEALED
Known as Stanley Forber, alias Slim Brady and James Martin, Forber's true identity was not revealed until last night when his brother, his only relative in this country, visited him. His parents and other relatives all live in Russia.

Altho he expressed fear a number of times yesterday that his nerve would fail him when it came to the final test, Forber was composed when he entered the death chamber accompanied by Rabbi Jasenosky, Rabbi Tarshish, Jacob Myers, head of the Columbus Hebrew Benevolent Society, and Chaplain Reed. He maintained his innocence up to the last.

Prison officials said he was the first Jew ever to be electrocuted in Ohio.

He died uttering a prayer in Yiddish.

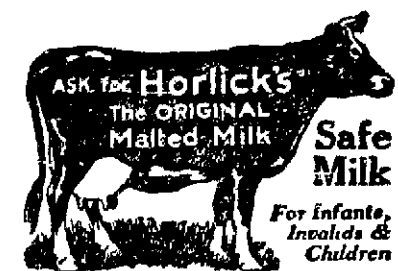

Warden P. E. Thomas granted his final request that Charles Mithoefer, serving a life sentence for his part in the same crime, be permitted to share his last meal. After the meal they chatted together for some time. In setting this precedent, Warden Thomas said he took into consideration Forber's highly nervous condition yesterday.

Koehler was killed when he and a brother officer, Corporal Roscoe Friddle, attempted to arrest Forber and three other men in an automobile which had been stolen in Cleveland. Friddle was wounded in the battle in addition to Mithoefer, Loomis Cummins, a member of the band, is serving a life sentence and the fourth bandit, Peter Long, was killed in the battle.

They escaped in the car which was abandoned west of Columbus. When apprehended by a posse, Forber attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself in the head. This resulted in the loss of his sight in his right eye.

QUITS CITY, ESCAPES FINE
Jim Brown, whose home is wherever he hangs his hat, was up before Judge Jackson in criminal court Friday for being intoxicated. He was released on a promise to quit the city.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
IN SESSION 21 HOURS
LONDON — The House of Commons adjourned at noon today until Monday, its weary members welcoming relief from a session that had been continuously in progress more than twenty-one hours, mainly for consideration of the army and air force annual bill, which finally passed its third reading.

This is the only opportunity presented during the year for the members of the house to revise the conditions of discipline in the army and air force and the sitting was notable for the jumble caused by obstruction from the labor benches.

AMERICAN TASTE WORRIES CHEF

Famous Food Preparer Claims Lack of Appreciation.

PROHIBITION PART CAUSE

Delicatessens Profit By Husbands' Indifference.

NEW YORK.—(Special)—By this time we are used to having artists tell us that Americans don't appreciate art. We are convinced we know nothing of music and that the fine points of the drama are beyond us. But now comes a complaint from another quarter—

We don't appreciate good cooking!

Monsieur Charles Scott, chef of international fame, now at the Ambassador hotel in New York and catering to Gotham's most aristocratic palates, makes the accusation.

Prohibition, quick lunches and cigar smoking while eating have made us what we are.

NO APPRECIATION!

"A chef may spend hours making the most elaborate dishes," he complains, "putting into them the knowledge and art he has learned in many countries, and the American diner comes in and wants beef-steak or lamb chops—and wants it in a hurry, so he can go somewhere else!"

It was not always thus.

Before prohibition, Americans were the most fastidious diners," he assures me. "They reserved their tables and ordered their dinners in advance. They appreciated epicurean food.

MEAL IS SECONDARY

"Now they come in half or three-quarters of an hour before time to go to the theater, smoke and dance between courses and what they eat is the least of their worries.

"They can't drink and it doesn't seem to occur to them that food isn't under the ban.

"If the American housewife gets a little appreciation of her efforts as the chef does, it is no wonder she has turned over her culinary worries to the delicatessen merchant."

Monsieur Scott learned his art in France. Later he went all over Europe, studying cookery with the most famous chefs. For 23 years he has been identified with the most famous dining places of Europe and America.

This Beauty Now For You

—guaranteed!

Science discovers falling, lustreless hair due to a simple infection (Sebum) which is quickly overcome—Amazing results in a few days

Wonderful hair, silky, lustrous, and a world of it!—this remarkable new method offers it to you under written guarantee!

If it fails, the treatment costs you nothing. Women by the thousands have recently made this test. Results are almost incredible.

That Infected Sebum

91% of hair troubles now are traced to infected Sebum.

Sebum is an oil that forms at the roots of the hair and frequently becomes infected. It cokes on the scalp. It plugs the follicles and forms a breeding place for bacteria—germs by the millions feed upon the hair and destroy it.

But note this scientific fact: Remove that infection—the Sebum—and soon your hair has the silken loveliness, the sheen and beauty for which every woman strives.

Our method accomplishes that result. It is sold with written guarantee.

Make the test. It is safe to do so, for you assume no risk. Go today to your drug or department store and obtain the Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. Written guarantee comes with each 3-bottle treatment. Results will be a revelation.

Note the rubber cap. You massage this treatment directly into the follicles of the hair.

PUTNAM-CO FIELD MEET MAY 12

Athletes to Meet at Ottawa for Various Contests

High school athletes from practically every section of Putnam-co will compete May 12, in the annual high school field meet at the county fair grounds, Ottawa.

The events committee met recently with the chairman, Superintendent E. F. Smith of Columbus Grove, and decided the same list of events on the program last year will feature the 1923 meet.

C. L. Waller, Lima former departmental secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will be the referee.

Ottawa, Columbus Grove, Painesville, Leipsic, Continental and Kalida participated in the meet last year.

Final arrangements will soon be completed. Field Day is a public event for high school students of the county. Hundreds flock into Ottawa in support of their teams.

Local committees and individuals arrange to extend their hospitality for the day.

BENEFIT MOVIE PLANNED FOR OTTAWA 1923 CLASS

A motion picture show, featuring Wesley Berry in "School Days," will be given at the town theatre, Ottawa, Sunday and Monday, for benefit of the graduating class of Ottawa high school.

Expenses incidental to graduation will be defrayed with funds secured from the production. Manager Rhodes of the theatre announces that the film production is one of the best in which the inimitable "Flickers" has ever played.

HEDGE WILL BEAUTIFY OTTAWA RAIL GROUNDS

The B. O. Railroad company is contributing to the civic beautification program in Ottawa by planting hedges throughout the length of the brick terrace south of the depot.

A trench is being dug in the hard clay soil and more fertile soil will be placed therein to give the hedge ample space in which to grow.

TOLEDO SCHOOL HEAD TO DELIVER CLASS ADDRESS AT OTTAWA, ON MAY 24

Charles S. Meek, superintendent of schools, at Toledo, will deliver the class address at commencement exercises for the Ottawa high school graduates May 21, according to announcement Thursday by Superintendent Ed Summers.

In the afternoon of the same day members of the class will present their class play, "Borrowed Money," under direction of J. L. Edwards, member of the high school faculty.

Baccalaureate services will be held earlier in the week, but the address to deliver the address has not yet been announced.

The graduating class of 1923 will consist of 21 members.

PRESS PLEA FOR FREE DELIVERY

Volume of Business at Ottawa Held to Justify it

A favorable reply from postal authorities at Washington to a request for free mail delivery service is being awaited by Ottawa citizens.

The bureau presented a month ago and presented it to Postmaster Stanley Kerr, who in turn sent it to Washington. Nothing has been heard of it, Kerr declared. He stated Friday that should no report be received within the next few days he will send a letter of inquiry to the post department.

According to postal provisions, a free delivery for a municipality to have $10,000 worth of business at its post office before free delivery service can be secured. The yearly report for Ottawa indicates the postal business exceeds that mark by more than 21,000.

Growth of the Ottawa battery has been one of the big contributing factors in making it possible for Ottawa to receive this service, it is stated. The big mail order business of the battery is said to have increased postal receipts greatly.

FARM LOAN PLAN IS POPULAR

Pauiding-co Expected to Emulate Allen-co Move

CLASSES IN MANAGEMENT

Demonstration Train to Visit Lima April 24th

C. Z. Moxell, of the Federal Loan Bank at Louisville, Kentucky, conferred with the county agent from Pauiding-co Friday, at the local Farm Bureau office in regard to creating a farm loan association among farmers in that county.

Such an organization has been active in Allen-co for over a year and operates thru the Lima Trust company. Under the federal law farmers may procure loans up to $25,000 at 5 1/2 per cent interest. The loans run for 34 1/2 years and one per cent of the principal is paid each year.

The farm loan association organized in Allen-co in June, 1922, and consists at the present time of about 40 members, including five directors, who must be borrowers in the association. The 40 members have borrowed thru the association the amount of $175,000, which, under the arrangement of the loan, will liquidate itself in 34 1/2 years.

H. F. Dean, of the Lima Trust company, is secretary-treasurer of the organization and Wm. R. Foulke, also of the Lima Trust, is assistant secretary-treasurer.

Classes in elevator management are to be given at Columbus during the week of May 21-26, according to information received Friday by H. J. Ridge, Allen-co agent.

The elevator short course, which is to be given by the college of agriculture at the state university, will consist of classes in seed testing, grain grading and an accounting and business management. Laboratory work will be given in the testing of various grains.

In addition to courses in the technical work of grain handling, lectures will be given on grain laws and on marketing methods.

Ridge states that Allen-co elevator men or prospective elevator managers should communicate with Dean Alfred Vivian, of the college of agriculture, not later than May 12, if they desire to enter the course. Eight cooperative elevators are located in Allen-co.

The poultry and dairy demonstration train to be sent over the state by the state university and the Erie Railroad company will arrive in Lima at 10:22 a. m., April 25, and will depart for Harard the next day, where it will hold a similar demonstration.

The train consists of two demonstration cars and also includes a car for lectures and demonstrations will occupy the day and motion pictures and radio concerts will be given at night.

Poultry lectures will be given from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. and dairy lectures from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m. The train visits Spencerville April 24.

Farm wages are higher this year than last, according to a report from C. J. West, state statistician, received at the Allen-co Farm Bureau office. The same statistics indicate that a shortage of labor threatens the farmer all over the country. For every four or five jobs in the state there are only three men to fill them, West's communication states.

PLOT TO BOMB HOUSE OF DAVID IS CHARGED

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—A motion picture against the suit of John W. Mansell against the Israelite House of David, heard here recently by a federal court here.

RAIN, WARMER FRIDAY NIGHT

There's not much chance for mushrooms to assert themselves in this sort of weather, experts say, altho there have been instances reported where "mushies" have been found in places where the ground was slightly covered with snow. However, that is the exception rather than the rule.

After a delightful day Thursday, the weatherman developed a new peeve and inflicted his grouches on the citizenry generally Friday. Rainfall during the morning was followed by a lowering temperature and Old not was forced off the job as a heating agency.

Rain tonight and Saturday. Slight warmer in extreme north portion tonight.

In April is showing evidence of a deterioration to stick to gloom conditions generally, in accord with the forecast of the long range, which calls for unreasonable conditions until at least the 20th. That's only a week away.

In the meantime, spring work is being held up and bursting buds held back. It may all be for the best, however, as the means of saving the fruit crops from late frosts that may come at any time now.

Farmers are getting their toes for spring work, but this far have been unable to make a great deal of headway in actual field work.

2 SHOT TO DEATH

Michigan Man Kills Woman, Ends Own Life

JACKSON, Mich.—(United Press)—Christian Zeigler, 31, wealthy garage owner, shot and killed Mrs. Francis Butts, 23, divorced wife of a Jackson-co deputy sheriff and then took his life at the home of Mrs. Butts' mother today.

The shooting police said followed a quarrel when Mrs. Butts refused Zeigler's pleas that she marry him.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY CONFEDERATE VETERANS

NEW ORLEANS.—A four-mile parade of Confederate veterans was to wind up the thirty-third annual encampment of the old soldiers here today.

Automobiles have been provided for the 10,000 delegates, as the distance is considered too great for the veterans to attempt to make on foot.

General William R. Haldeman, Louisville, Ky., was the new commander-in-chief today of the Confederate veterans. Haldeman was elected at the final business meeting of the reunion yesterday.

Colonel W. McDonald Lee, Virginia, was re-elected commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Memphis, Tenn., was selected for next year's meeting place.

ADDITION TO BE MADE TO O. N. G. BUILDING AT ADA

Appropriations recently authorized by the state legislature provide $20,000 for improvements at the Ada national guard armory.

EVIDENCE DRUNK, JUDGE CHARGES

Accusation Made Against Police of New York

NEW YORK.—(Associated Press)—Magistrate Joseph E. Corrigan today told David Hirschfeld, commissioner of accounts, that he was "surprised at the depths to which the police department had sunk" and that "half of the cops are bootleggers."

Testifying at an investigation of charges made against the police department by the jurist and by Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, magistrate Corrigan enumerated instances reported to him of raids conducted without warrants, of police openly drinking much of the evidence and of bootlegging operations in the neighborhood markets.

"I recall a raid on an Italian restaurant on West Houston-st. three or four months ago, the magistrate testified. 'The police searched this place and could not find anything. Then they broke in the place next door and seized stocks worth $20,000.'"

"There were 23 policemen in the raid and I am told that they drank about 75 bottles of liquor, breaking off the tops of the bottles. I am also told that three or four hours later liquor was being sold in the neighborhood."

Asked by the examining commissioner if he believed that story, magistrate Corrigan said he "certainly did."

When Hirschfeld inquired why the witness did not have the proprietor of the Italian cafe enter a complaint about the raid, Magistrate

BOYS RESCUED FROM SEWER BY FIREMEN

CLEVELAND.—Five Cleveland Heights school boys, 12 to 14 years of age, were rescued from a sewer last night by firemen after the rescuers had pushed their way thru a foot of water a quarter of a mile into the sewer where they found the boys feeling their way in the darkness.

The boys had removed a manhole opening and descended into the sewer for an investigation, according to their story to the police.

"We were just taking a walk," one of the boys said. "We had never seen the inside of a sewer and wanted to find out what one looked like."

After a fatherly scolding by Police Chief Earrows, the boys were released.

TURKS DEAF TO PROTEST AGAINST CONCESSIONS

CONSTANTINOPLE.—French protests against the granting of concessions in Mesopotamia to the Greek group of American capitalists will not be heeded by the Turks, according to reports today from Ankara.

Firm in the belief that the concessions will hasten the resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and Turkey the Ankara government has decided to turn a deaf ear to all protests, advice state.

DONAHUE VETOES BILL

160 ATTEND MEETING OF LIMA-DELPHOS MISSION GROUP; LEADER ABSENT

Approximately 160 members of the Lima-Delephos group of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society attended the sixth annual group meeting Friday at Trinity M. E. church. The meeting opened at 10 a. m. and continued through the afternoon.

Mrs. E. L. Studevant, president of the organization, was unable to deliver a morning address as planned, because of jury service. The time was occupied with routine business.

The afternoon session was featured by the appearance, in native costume, of Miss Roxie Mellinger, who recently returned from a five-year stay in Burma, where she represented the society as a missionary. She told of her work among the natives of the island.

CITY SCHOOLS OBSERVE FRIDAY AS ARBOR DAY

Brief lectures on the purpose behind the "Plant Another Tree" movement marked Arbor day in city schools Friday. No general programs were planned.

Several rural schools held tree plantings.

Friday was made "Arbor and Bird Day" by proclamation of Governor Vic Donahey.

The vital need of reforestation as well as the esthetic desire to have ornamental growing things is stressed by the movement.

"AGE OF YOUTH" HE SAYS

"Sheiks and Flappers Making Good Everywhere"

BROWNSVILLE, Ky.—(Special)—Ask the folks in this little county seat, 20 miles from a railroad and 10 miles from Mammoth Cave, about who's who and they will talk to you of Charles E. Whittle.

Charles is the town's celebrity. He has just turned 23, and is president of Ogden college in historic Bowling Green, Ky.

If there is a younger president of a standard college, Brownsville has never heard of him.

Ten years ago Charles was one of the village boys in short pants and bare feet. He could "shimmy" up the slickest apple tree and he knew the shortest route to every melon patch.

At 13 he had never seen a railroad train, but he knew about all there was to learn in the one-room grade school. It was 30 miles to the nearest high school or college. So Charles' mother—his father had died when Charles was 12—took him to Bowling Green.

And at 18 Charles got his A. B. degree from Ogden college.

A year later he was graduated from Yale. Meanwhile he had been commissioned a lieutenant in the army.

When he was made a college president a few weeks ago, the home folks decided it was the best record they had heard of. But—"I don't think I have done much," Charles says with his boyish smile. "I did not ask the college board for this job. I had built up quite a little law practice at Brownsville. But, now I think I'll stay on here for a while."

"AGE OF YOUTH"
"Did you ever stop to think that the so-called sheiks and flappers have gone in for every field except legislation, and are making good?"

"If they ever go in for Congress, that crowd up there will run up the white flag and retire. Of course we are different. There would be no progress if we were not."

Walker B. Hines, director general of railroads during the war, is one of Ogden college's alumni.

"One can reach almost any goal if he will everlastingly keep hammering away."

"I think that most of the so-called successful men can attribute much of their success to their mothers. 'Youth should be no bar to responsible positions."

"All people do not have the same educational advantages, but there's not much excuse for a man saying he has not had a chance."

"A college education is not always possible. It is not always essential for success, but my advice is to go on thru college. It will not harm you, and it may do you much good."

NEW SCHOOL RULE PROPOSED

Regulation for Hawaii and Pacific Coast Urged

LIMITS FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Provides for Teaching of Oriental Tongues

HONOLULU—(Associated Press) The teaching of Oriental languages in the public schools of Hawaii and the Pacific coast states, as a means of bringing about better relations between the United States and Japan, was advocated here by Dr. A. L. Dean, president of the University of Hawaii, at a public hearing held by the territorial house educational committee on alien language school measures which have been introduced into the legislature.

One of the bills would carry into effect the recent order of the board of education providing that no child may attend an alien language school until after he completes successfully the first two grades in an American public school. The other bill imposes an annual tax of $1 upon all pupils of alien language schools, the proceeds to be used in defraying the expenses of inspections of such schools by the territory.

Dr. Dean's statement came after the presentation of argument against both bills by Joseph Lightfoot, former deputy territorial attorney-general, and Judge S. C. Huber, former United States district attorney, who are acting as counsel for the Japanese language schools.

Lightfoot, in his argument, designated as "Jap batters" the members of an inter-racial committee who had been appointed to outline courses of study and textbooks for alien schools. Dr. Dean, chairman of the inter-racial committee, answered this by declaring that 13 members of the joint committee were Japanese.

SCHOOL HISTORY

Lightfoot reviewed the history of Japanese schools in Hawaii, saying that there are now 147 of these institutions in the territory, attended by 23,000 pupils. He said that the bills aimed at the "annihilation of the schools and not their regulation. He pleaded against what he characterized as "class legislation" and said that enactment of the bills would deprive the Japanese of treaty and constitutional rights.

Judge Huber urged a liberal attitude toward the language schools, pointing out that litigation is pending before the supreme courts of the United States and of the territory, testing the rights of such schools. He asked that legislative action be delayed until these cases were settled.

Dr. Dean said that the problem was not a question of teaching Japanese children to speak the language of their parents, but of teaching Americans to speak Japanese, since practically all the pupils at the alien schools are American citizens. He said that the inter-racial committee did not aim at the abolition of the schools, but it did desire to limit their activities, and that under the new program all of the work of the schools could be done in six years instead of eight.

He declared that one of the strongest arguments against the alien schools was that few children could master two languages at the same time, and that, since the children, born of alien parents, were to be future citizens of the United States, it was desirable that they be able to express effectively the medium of expression of their country. He denied the committee was actuated by a spirit of "Jap bating."

How to throw off that tired, listless feeling

GENERAL—tensions ago, our foremothers made a "tea" every Spring from certain herbs and barks to purify the blood. Likewise, since 1835, such herbs and barks have been carefully selected, proportioned scientifically and prepared for that great blood purifier—S. S. S. To serve beneficially from one generation to another successfully is a guarantee of its effectiveness. The way we live and eat, we can't stop from Winter into Spring without purifying the blood; unless we choose to suffer depression, feel tired out, and have pimples and boils. It is so easy to give nature a little help, and the best sure way is to start with S. S. S. Stronger and more useful nerves depend on blood-purifier. S. S. S. will give you that greater endurance, energy, strength, and a more youthful appearance.

Mr. J. M. Mar, Los Angeles, Calif., writes: "Overwork occasioned a complaint which consisted of a tired feeling and pains in the back, that finally exhausted all my strength. A friend advised me to take S. S. S. and after taking only several bottles I was entirely relieved."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical. Get a bottle today!

WALL STREET FOR BERLIN SEEN

Many Skyscrapers Being Erected by German Bankers

FROWNED ON BY MASSES

Regarded as Monuments to War Profiteering

BERLIN — (Associated Press)—Berliners are hardly less agitated about the high exchange on the dollar and pound than they are about the increasing height of buildings on Unter den Linden.

The buildings which are soaring upwards are all bank structures. That makes it even harder for the German with depreciated marks, for he feels that the bankers have in some mysterious way manipulated exchange to his disadvantage. To the average Berlin man, the high office buildings are monuments to war profiteering. German architects, especially those who have no commissions for high buildings, frown at the Wall Street district along Unter den Linden in the vicinity of the university, the state opera and the old palace. They predict that St. Hedwig's church, just south of the opera house, will soon be swallowed up as Trinity church is, and almost completely hemmed in by overshadowing office buildings.

Two skyscrapers have already made their appearance on Unter den

Linden. At least Berliners call them skyscrapers. They would be lost alongside a New York monster as they really are only about ten stories, and their upper floors are well camouflaged under receding tile roofs, which lessen the discord with surrounding buildings of only half the height.

But Berliners insist the wonderful skyline of Unter den Linden is already ruined. One of the bank buildings is near the Brandenburg gate. The other is near the opera house. Unter den Linden, with its wide grass plot and bridgehead to the center is so spacious that buildings of great height will not darken the boulevard. But the cross streets are narrow. One of the new bank buildings is at the corner of Charlotten Street, which is so narrow that tenants are complaining bitterly of the lessening of their light and air.

PRESSED FOR SPACE

Under the pre-war regulations there were no buildings permitted in Berlin which exceed five or six stories and there was little steel used in construction. Most of the banks have found themselves pressed for space under the frantic financing which has been brought about by the conditions, and are adding floors to the tops of their structures. As a result steel is used, but most of the extensions are of masonry alone.

With the disappearance of the Emperor and the great military organization, Unter den Linden has become far less of a parade ground than it was under the old regime. Berlin is growing westward. The better residences are springing up miles west of Unter den Linden, with the result that it is ceasing to have importance as a retail street. Motor transportation is carrying well-to-do Berliners far west of the Tiergarten to Grunewald, Wanssee and even to Potsdam.

Friedrich Street and other narrow retail streets which cross Unter den Linden are also becoming less important as the result of the shifting of the better residence centers to the westward. The better theatres and cafes are also moving westward. The state opera house, which was built in the time of Frederick the Great, is so old-fashioned and has been reconstructed so often that it will probably be replaced in a few years by a new building much nearer to the homes of opera-goers.

HEADLESS TERROR

LONDON — Farmers are being terrorized by an apparition in the form of a headless woman which they assert they nightly near the ruins of an old monastery between Datchet and Old Windsor.

Your faith in Kellogg's Bran can never be misplaced—IT IS ALL BRAN!

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumm, improves any hot or cold cereal, and will permanently relieve the most severe cases of constipation because it is ALL BRAN—not a food mixture that cannot possibly have sufficient natural corrective properties. Once constipation gets into your system you must fight it to the finish. Kellogg's Bran is the weapon. It will win for you. Don't take half-way measures; don't temporize.

Kellogg's Bran is permanent relief for constipation if it is eaten regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in chronic cases, with each meal. And, Kellogg's is a taste-delectable because it is delicious and comes to you as a highly palatable, desirable food, as well as a corrective. You will greatly enjoy Kellogg's Bran as a cereal; its nut-like flavor universal!

VOCATIONAL STUDENTS INCREASE 300 PER CENT

WASHINGTON—A large increase in attendance at agricultural vocational schools, set up under provisions of the Federal Vocational Education Act of 1917, is recorded in statistics covering the first five-year period of the act.

At the close of the fiscal year 1922, the agricultural enrollment totaled 69,176, while at the end of the first year under the act, 1918, the enrollment was only 15,463. This is an increase of nearly 300 per cent for the period. The number of agricultural vocational schools has increased from 695 in 1918 to 2,176; the number of teachers increased from 695 to 2,290.

OPEN LETTERS

To the Superstitious

FRIENDS: This is a "Friday the 13th." I trust that none of you will attach any particular importance to the coincidence in the matter of harboring superstition.

LIMA BEANE

To City Manager Bingham

DEAR CLARENCE: You are, I am informed, sponsoring a plan which would provide for "wholesale" letting of street paving contracts. By wholesale, I understand, is meant the bunching of work which would permit contractors to tender what might be termed a blanket bid.

Argument advanced in favor of this plan is that it would tend to cut down cost to the city, the theory being that you could sell a big lot of work at a lower figure than you could sell it piecemeal.

The theory is fine if it would work out in practice. But have you any assurance that it would? Would such a plan not help create a monopoly for the big contractor who is able to bid on a big block of work, excluding the "little fellow" who could not undertake such a block but who would be fully responsible for a few street jobs if he could obtain them?

You know what happens when a monopoly is established. There is little likelihood of the big concerns cutting prices if they knew that only they could get the work. Wouldn't it tend to set up a trading off system among a few, the dealing out of this city and that among the ones large enough to compete?

LIMA BEANE

To My Citizens

DEAR FRIENDS: Yesterday I heard an interesting little story about a residence in my city that sold several years ago for $7,300. Later, it was sold for $11,000, then for $15,000 and an offer of $22,000 has been refused by the present owner.

While this case may be above the average, it serves to show the trend of realty values in my prosperous community. If you would be shown any other kind of investment where your money would be safe and the same return were guaranteed, you would jump at the chance.

Lima real estate represents a sure thing from an investment standpoint. Please keep this in mind when the landlord tells you he is about to sell the place you are renting.

LIMA BEANE

To Mrs. Henry Ford

DEAR MADAM: You are reported as saying you will not live in the White House. I am particularly glad you have taken this stand, not that I think it will have any bearing upon the status of your illustrious husband's presidential possibilities, but I always hate to see a woman disappointed.

LIMA BEANE

To Banks and Waterworks Department

GENTLEMEN: Installation of your new burglar alarm system is a fine thing, but it has been causing no end of trouble for my police department by being set off accidentally. Every time the big police car must dash thru the center of my city in answer to these alarms life is endangered. Will you please discuss the matter of care with your organizations?

LIMA BEANE

To the Weatherman

OLD TOP: Keep it up! Your offerings for the last few days have been fairly acceptable, and it's about time. Do you think I want to make the coal barons happy all summer at $11 per? Well, I guess not. Snap out of it and give us some of those real old fashioned, balmy Spring days!

LIMA BEANE

To Street Car Patrons

FRIENDS: The new one man cars have been in operation long enough to give us a pretty good idea of how they will work. So far, they have given good satisfaction and are a great improvement over the old junk with which we became so familiar.

There is one way in which you can help improve the service, I have observed. Passengers must enter and leave the cars by the front door. There is a tendency for patrons to clog the aisle near the front, inconveniencing others who reach their stops before the crowd thins out. Why not move to the rear, if you are going a considerable distance, as a matter of courtesy to others and assistance to the company?

LIMA BEANE

To Auto Drivers

MY FRIENDS: The bard might write it something like this if he were alive today: The auto wrecking days are here, the saddest of the year. And why? It is a sad occasion when two speeding machines tangle up and the ambulances haul in the dead and injured.

I'm counting on you to prevent these unnecessary accidents. Let's make it unanimous.

LIMA BEANE

To C. W. Smith, Manager Argonne Hotel

DEAR CLIFFORD: I understand you have placed printed cards in the rooms of your hotel, calling to the attention of your guests their duty to write to mother at least once a week.

There is a fine sentiment in your suggestion. It may be looked upon as a little thing, but I venture the assertion that it will play a big part in making men better, in turning their minds to home and mother.

LIMA BEANE

To American Legion

DEAR VETERANS: Your plans for starting Americanization work among aliens is most commendable. There are a large number of natives of foreign lands in this territory who would be very glad to have the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with our form of government and becoming naturalized.

The effort you are to make to meet the situation is worthy of applause. Every person who comes to America from foreign shores, expecting to make this land his permanent place of abode, should become a citizen.

LIMA BEANE

To Excavators in Egypt

GENTLEMEN: I've always argued against superstition that still clings to many human beings, but if things keep going like they have in the last few weeks, you'll almost convince a large percentage there is something to worry about.

Certain persons are trying to prove that the death of the Earl of Carnarvon was the result of a curse of the pharaohs since it was he who dug into the tomb of King Tut. Now Howard Carter, co-discoverer of the tomb, is reported ill.

I am hoping for a change.

LIMA BEANE

To R. R. Trubey

DEAR REGINALD: The spirit you are showing in requesting that probe of charges filed against you be speeded up, indicates that you have little or no fear of the outcome.

However, what I really meant to say is that I do not blame you for demanding a thorough investigation in the courts of the accusations laid. If you are guilty, the fact should be made known. If you are innocent, you should be freed of the charges.

lowstairs, to no radishes. So, breakfasted on a turned egg, and toasted biscuits. Thence to the shoemaker's, and left them. At the post, saluted by a friendly message from Bro. John. Enclosing greetings, bearing a picture of a stalwart bank.

On the fairway. Met and chatted with Leon Loewenstein, the retired merchant. And Dwight Livingstone Goodyear the banker and financier.

All the morning, studying the market as compared with Bahson's prediction in January. And he stands now 7 down and 6 to play. Human analysis might be more scientific, so I let Lima Loco go at seventy and a fraction. No need to get swiney.

Lunched at the Parlor Car, on a Dinty Moore menu. Very sweet. Out, and got a brave new fedora of noble gray. Albeit, will conserve it until the winds cease their eternal sneezing. A woman cares little about being hotter than thou. She's interested in being better gowned than thee.

Saw Mayor Brud, and booked a round with him. As soon as his fyngers recover from syring the bonds. Waved to Earl Rohn, and Judge Phil Crowe, the south side publishers. Bado Henry Wanner adieu, he and Mrs. Wanner being away to Los Angeles. And speaking of traveling. There's only one place in the world I don't want to go. And that's broke.

In the late afternoon. Cranked her, and gassed to M'sour Laughlin's new house, for artistic inspiration. It is a beauty. So, jogged in on Market, to study types of the Tired Business Man. Trudging home for fuel. Yet only two trudged. The others benumbed. Congressman John L. Cable, was actually walking. And ditto, Walter Cooney.

In the evening, to Adams Rib, at the Quilna. Making me think that every wife really knows had she but waited, she could have claimed the Rich Man, her chum married a year later. Albeit the poignant period comes when it's all said on the Great Adventure, leaving behind the noble bundle of ermine necessity. So, moodily, to bed.

THE LITTLE STRANGER

Let us repeat a few facts which tend to nullify some of the most popular nursery superstitions:

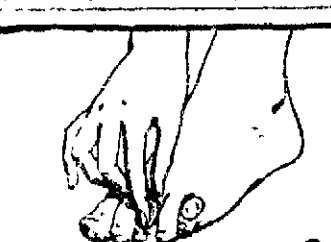

The baby requires no nourishment whatever the first 12 hours of life, only sleep in a warm crib. It is a most pernicious practice to give the baby any kind of nourishment in the first 12 hours. In the second 12 hours, the baby should be put to the breast regularly at four hour intervals, likewise in the second and third days. In many cases a strict clock work four hour nursing schedule may be maintained indefinitely, omitting one nursing in the night. In other cases the baby is better nursed every three hours, for seven times each 24 hours, omitting one nursing in the night.

From 15 to 20 minutes is long enough for a baby to nurse. Generally it is better to let the baby empty one breast completely at a nursing, reserving the other breast for the next nursing.

The mother should lie down beside the baby for nursing, rather than hold the baby in her arms. After nursing, the baby should remain perfectly quiet, and never be rocked or jiggled about. Strict obedience of this rule means good digestion for the baby. Jouncing, rocking or jiggling the baby is a crime which not even ignorance can excuse. Nature demands quiet after nursing. If possible, sleep, for good digestion. Too often there are abnormal notions about this which cause much digestive difficulty by rocking or shaking the baby about when he should be snoozing with peace of a full stomach.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Bathing the Children
I bathe my old youngster three times a week and my 1 month old baby every day. Is it too often? And should I bathe them when they have a cold or cough?—Mrs. L.
Answer—Not too often. Bathe them when they are ill unless the doctor directs otherwise.
It Itches When Healing
Is the position of the child that itching is a sign of healing in a wound merely a fancy or has it a real foundation?—R. W. H.
Answer—The inflammatory reaction which occurs in the healing process is usually increased by the sensitivity of the nerve terminals about the wound, which gives rise to itching sensations.
Sulphur and Molasses
What do you think of sulphur and molasses as a blood purifier in the spring of the year? What proportion, how much and how often should it be given?—M. J. C.
Answer—It purifies the blood as well as any other medicine can, which is not at all so far as I know. It is merely a physic, any time of year. About equal quantities of flowers of sulphur and molasses and a tablespoonful for a dose, daily.

CONTENTMENT

A little house on a little street
Where the children scamper on eager feet,
A friendly tree and a friendly door,
Who is the man who could wish for more?

What have the palace or mansion fine
That God has denied unto me and mine?
Laughter? Mine is as sweet and clear
As ever rings in a mortal's ear!
Smiles? My babe's are as fair to see
As ever a monarch's child's could be,
And the proud rich man who is riding
Shall come to no happier home than I.

Over my roof the blue sky bends,
Under my roof the toiling ends
Small be the house, but what care I,
Rich with peace are the hours that fly.
What if he brightens his meal with wine?
I shall have laughter and love with mine.

What has another that I must gain?
The sunbeams dance thru my window pane,
The same rain falls on the friendly tree,
The same joys comfort both him and me.
Shall fond arms welcome him home today?
I shall be met in the self-same way.

So I am as rich as a king, I say,
The I must drudge to my toil by day;
My children are dear and as fair to me
As ever a monarch's babes could be,
And I shall find love at my humble door,
And who is the man who can boast of more?

FREE DAY DAWNS FOR INDIA

Woman's Effort May Result in Self-Government

BRITAIN OBJECTS TO WORK

Mrs. Besant, Alien, is Head of Indian Congress

WASHINGTON — (Special) — An era of political freedom is dawning for the 300 motley millions of India—an era of freedom in which India will control its internal affairs while remaining a member of the British commonwealth of nations, willingly and not thru force.

And having found its freedom, all India will pay homage for the rest of its national history to a feminine George Washington—Mrs. Annie Besant, president of the Theosophical society.

For half a century Mrs. Besant has labored untiringly for a free India and once has been interned by the British government because of her efforts. This, despite the fact that Mrs. Besant is an alien and has no blood affinity with the Indian people!

The romantic tale of Mrs. Besant's life work was related here today by Fritz Kunz of the American Theosophical society, who for 17 years was associated with Mrs. Besant in her work in India.

STARTED IN 1889

"Mrs. Besant joined the Theosophical society in 1889 and shortly thereafter went to India and settled at Madras," Kunz said. "During the first 25 years of her stay in Hindustan, she devoted her attention to educational work—inspiring interest in Indian philosophy, language and religions, and founding schools and universities."

"Finding further progress along educational lines blocked, she launched herself actively into political work in 1913. She vigorously demanded home rule for India within the British empire."

"In 1914 she had brought the Madras Standard, a newspaper, and had changed its name to New India. With her two monthly magazines, her daily paper and her weekly paper she fought relentlessly for Indian freedom."

INTERED BY BRITISH

"Old-school members of the British bureaucracy became alarmed. They caused Mrs. Besant's internment in 1917. But a storm broke all over the country."

"That same year the British government announced its acceptance of home rule as the goal of its Indian policy. Mrs. Besant, still interned, was elected president of the Indian national congress."

"Just then the unfortunate Amritsar affair occurred—when a British officer shot down hundreds of unarmed Indians with machine guns and only ceased firing because his ammunition ran out."

GANDHI IN POWER

"That gave Mrs. Besant's movement a decided setback and encouraged the extremist movement of Mahatma Karamchand Gandhi. "But Gandhi was interned in 1921 and his movement collapsed."

"Associated with Mrs. Besant in her work has been the Right Honorable Shrinivasa Sastri, a progressive native of India, who was a British delegate at the Washington conference on limitation of armament."

"Today India is embarking on the last step toward complete freedom within the empire when it will be equal with Canada and all other dominions."

"And the 300,000,000 people of Hindustan recognize Mrs. Besant's claim on their gratitude."

ATTORNEY WINS JUDGMENT

J. K. Rockey, attorney, won a judgment of $149.50 for services as counsel for D. D. Simmons and the Simmons collecting agency, of Lima, when a jury before Justice E. M. Botkin, found in his favor Friday. The plaintiff had sought a verdict for $280.10.

IS GLAD TO TELL OTHER PEOPLE

Relates How the Plant Juice Relieved Terrible Stomach Trouble

GREAT REMEDY, HE SAYS

"I consider your Plant Juice as a great medicine and I am glad to tell other suffering people what it has done for me," said Mr. J. W. Oatman, of 931 West Elm street, Lima, while talking with The Plant Juice

MR. J. W. OATMAN
Man recently at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, where large crowds of people are calling daily to hear about this surprising herbal medicine.

"For years I suffered from terrible stomach trouble. I had spells of bloating which got so bad at times that I could not button my clothing. My appetite was poor; bowels were in bad shape. I had severe pains in my back and my kidneys were in such bad condition that I could not get any rest at night for I had to get up six to eight times."

"I want to say that your Plant Juice medicine has changed all of these conditions. My bowels are in good condition. I do not have any pain now and do not have to get out of bed more than once during the night and as a result I get up mornings feeling fine. I have a good appetite now and do not suffer from the bloating spells anymore. All this change has come over me as a result of taking your Plant Juice and so I think it is a great medicine and am glad to tell others about it."

Many people who take this Plant Juice medicine say it is a surprising effect upon the stomach, liver and kidneys. It has proved beneficial in several thousand cases in Lima and vicinity alone and in more than a million cases in all parts of the United States.

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this medicine. Free samples given.

DITCH WORK HELD UP IN ALLEN-CO

New Laws Not Effective, Eight Contracts Halted

AWAITS DONAHEY SIGNATURE

Hearings on Projects Continued by Commissioners

Unless emergency legislation enacted by Ohio lawmakers at Columbus becomes effective soon, county commissioners see no way to let contracts for eight ditches in Allen-co, they announced Friday.

The legislation has passed both the house and the senate, but has not been signed by the governor. The bill designed to correct portions of the existing ditch laws recently declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, is one of the few measures jammed thru in the closing hours of the session.

Until the bill is signed or some other form of relief is secured, the county commissioners declare they are powerless to proceed with ditch hearings.

Hearings on a number of ditches petitioned for have been continued. Other ditches for which the contracts have been let are not affected, according to Commissioner A. J. Gray.

DITCH LAWS REPEALED

Decision of the court has wiped out a large section of the ditch laws. Prosecuting Attorney Eugene L. Lipincott declared, and practically nullified many other sections.

Among the ditch hearings that have been postponed as a result of the conditions are those relating to the Spencerville joint county ditch and the Early ditch.

Six other waterways designed to drain and convert swampy areas into fertile farm lands will also be held up, because the commissioners feel they lack power to proceed.

It is probable all the ditches will have to be re-petitioned for. If this becomes necessary, the question as to who will pay the costs on the present petitions will probably be raised. The commissioners are of the opinion that the petitioners should not have to pay for preparing both petitions.

WIDOW GAINS CONTROL OF ONE-THIRD OF ESTATE OF THE LATE WILLIAM VANCE

Election to take a share of the estate of William Vance, deceased, according to law, and not under terms of his will, was made in common pleas court Friday by Mrs. Mary A. Vance, 43, Monroe-st.

Vance died last summer leaving his wife a life interest in the real estate. An allowance as provided by law amounting to $300 was paid Mrs. Vance from personal property belonging to the decedent.

After a hearing in probate court, the amount was materially increased by Judge J. H. Hamilton. By election under the law, rather than the will, Mrs. Vance gains control of one-third of the entire estate, after debts are paid.

The remainder will go to the children of Vance by a former marriage. The hearing in court was necessitated, because the plaintiff had previously elected under the will.

U. S. MINE HEAD SEEKS BRITISH COOPERATION

LONDON—American Labor is not likely to adopt the political views and methods of British workers, according to John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers of America, who is surveying mining conditions in England.

Lewis is looking over the industry here with an eye to miners' co-operation, he told the United Press.

Lewis was not prepared to define or indicate the scope and nature of the co-operation contemplated.

Mining and general industrial conditions are looking up in the United States, Lewis said. The opposite is true of England, where miners' representatives have recently called on Premier Bonar Law and expressed themselves as wholly unsatisfied with his reaction to plans to better the condition of their men.

WOMAN TEACHES FOLK DANCES

National Activity is Planned by Miss Burchenal

MADISON, Wis. — (Special) — America will have her national folk dances, and they will be known the world over, if the efforts of Miss Elizabeth Burchenal are successful.

Miss Burchenal is known as the leading American authority on folk dancing, was organizer and first chairman of the folk dance committee of the Playground Association of America, and is a member of the staff of the National Community Service, in which capacity she trains recreation leaders. She came to Madison to institute community folk dance classes.

Recreation, thru folk dancing, for grownups as well as children, is Miss Burchenal's life work. She has studied the national dances of all European countries, has traveled thru regions unexplored by tourists and taken part in peasants' recreations, in order to learn all there is to know of this subject.

In 1913, she conducted a folk dance institute in Ireland, for which she was presented with a gold Tara brooch.

"The greatest potential value of folk dancing," she says, "lies in its possibilities as a much needed wholesome form of popular recreation."

"Folk dancing as a means of self-expression and wholesome recreation for children is established. It is here to stay. The children have decided that. But as a part of adult recreation and as a means of developing citizenship, it has just begun. Self-consciousness, dignity and timidity are broken down and all give themselves up to relaxation, enjoyment and exhilaration as happily as children.

"It is only a matter of time when folk dancing will be an American community activity. It is bound to be, for it is one of the happy things people can do so freely and so easily."

BIG HAULS MADE IN RAIDS BY DRY AGENTS

PHILADELPHIA—Federal prohibition agents who started a drive Wednesday night to "dry up" Philadelphia, had raided more than eighty saloons, restaurants and other places when they stopped early today for a rest.

Thousands of gallons of whisky, wine and beer had been confiscated and a dozen prisoners taken. Frederick A. Hazeltine, division prohibition officer, expressed surprise over the charges made by some of his agents that policemen had been directing the thirsty to saloons where they could obtain whisky.

It is no longer the cry, "Frieda Hempel is coming" — It is, Frieda Hempel is here. Friday evening at Memorial Hall, the dreams and hopes of the members of the executive committee of the Woman's Music club will be realized in the appearance of the world's greatest soprano, Frieda Hempel, in her famous "Jenny Lind Concert." Miss Hempel will appear in a recently fashioned Paris gown, which is an exact reproduction of the one worn by Jenny Lind, in her concert in 1859. At the conclusion of the program, Madame Hempel will be presented with a lovely old-fashioned bouquet of flowers a gift of one of Lima's florist shops.

During the intermission, a group of young women and girls, members of the Woman's Music club will pass out souvenir cards, showing on one side a facsimile of the ticket sold at Jenny Lind's concert in 1859, at auction for $625, and on the other side, a portrait of Miss Hempel in her Jenny Lind costume. Those who will act as honorary ushers will be Mesdames Fred Gooding, John Carnes, Dale Dunford, Donald McHaffey, Clarence Klinger and James Enck, Mesdames Margaret Gregg, Louise Ackerman, Martha and Mary Louie, Gertrude Barnes, Margaret K. Roly, Gertrude Barnes, Margaret Graham, Violet Bradley, Florence Price, Miriam Kamerer and Dorothy Bernstein.

The concert will begin at 8:15 o'clock. Appearing on the program with Hempel will be her accompanists, Conrad Ross and Louis F. Fritz.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deibel, Jr., W. Market-st., will leave Sunday for Cleveland, where they will attend the wedding of Mrs. Deibel's brother Royal Alderman to Miss Eunice Whalen of that city. The marriage ceremony will be performed at the St. Thomas Aquinas church, Tuesday morning. The young couple will make their home in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Deibel will be accompanied home by Mrs. Deibel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Alderman of Marietta for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Holmes and son, Burton, will arrive in Lima Sunday from Cleveland, where they have made their home for the past three months. While there, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes figured prominently in the musical circles of the city.

McCabe Howe, N. Collet-st., returned Thursday from a week's trip to Columbus and Washington Court House. In Columbus, he was the guest of his daughter, Miss T. A. Howe, a student at the Columbus School for Girls.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I AM 17 years old and go out regularly with a young man who wants me to "make" engaged to him. I don't like to go out with other boys, sometimes I like them and have told him that but he has much chance to say any other but I can't think of being told down by an engagement. I realize I am young yet and I want to go where I please. I have never friends, both boys and girls, and I am sure of wherever I go. At a dance, I never have to be afraid of being a wallflower, and I always have lots of invitations. Do you see that an engagement would mean to me.

The trouble is, that if I refuse to be engaged to him, I know this fellow would leave home, for he has told me so. We stopped going together once, but I made up again because he threatened to leave home. What shall I do?

B. fair. Don't encourage the young man by accepting such marked attentions from him if you don't care enough to become engaged to him.

When the time comes that you are really in love, you will find that you will not feel "tied down" by an engagement. On the contrary, you will be contented with the attentions of the man you have promised to marry. As for the young man's threat to leave home, do not let that influence you to become engaged. He has no right to try to force your decision.

Dear Miss Smart: Recently I saw in your column a letter from "E." in which he asks if there are any girls who would not give a fellow a rotten deal.

Indeed, "E." there are lots of girls who are respectable and who would try to give a boy a rotten deal. When he meets "her" he will know it and if he is the "chump" for her, she will not give him the worst deal of the deal. Perhaps "E." has been disillusioned. Perhaps you haven't been treated square, but please don't judge all girls by one.

I wish I had a chance to show you that all girls are not unfair.

I noticed a letter from N. Y. Z. the other evening in The Lima News, in which he expressed a desire to meet respectable girls. I would like to meet him as I believe I am as respectable as he is. I am 16, a brunette and respectable. If he writes for my name, I will forward it to him.

BARTNEY. Thank you, Bartney, for your very good letter. I think (and I believe "E.") will also, that it is the best one that has been written him.

Dear Miss Smart: We are two boys, both 17 years old. We read "Guns and Rings" letter in the Lima News on Wednesday. We have a different view than that of "E." we are sure there are plenty of respectable girls who would give a fellow a square deal. We would like to meet these girls. We are sending our telephone number so that you may call us up when they send in their names, which I hope they will do. We thank you.

"BURN-EM UP" AND "TROCHY." Dear Miss Smart: I am a young girl of 16 years of age. I have been going with a young boy much older than me. Before going with him I kept company with a young man of my own age. He has asked me to go with him several times, but I don't care for him. What would you advise me to say to him so as not to hurt him, but still give him the name of a girl who I do not desire his company?

How is my writing? A. B. C. I am afraid, A. B. C., that you have not expressed yourself very clearly. I am doubtful which young man, it is you do not care for. However, either write him a note or simply tell him that you do not care to go with him any more; that is, accept favors from him, but that perhaps you would like to keep a speaking acquaintance with him. My opinion is that you are a trifle young to begin going steadily with one man.

Very good.

MEDIUM BROWN HAIR. Looks best all after a Golden Gilt Shampoo.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

FRIDAY EVENING
Frieda Hempel, Memorial Hall, 8:15 o'clock.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gamble, dinner, at home.

SATURDAY
Miss Florence Price, entertains, Hotel Argonne, 2:30 o'clock.
College Women's club, parish house, 2:30 o'clock.
S. S. club, Mrs. Scott McGinnis, 1:00 o'clock luncheon.
King's Herald of Trinity M. E. church, 2:30 o'clock.
Mrs. H. A. Welch, entertains, evening.
N. B. O. O. club, Miss Helen Longworth, evening.

Miss Ann Taylor, who is residing in Wilkesburg, Pa., will return here on Sunday after visiting at the home of her father, George Taylor and her sister, Miss Lillian W. Market-st. As a compliment to Miss Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Gamble, W. Market-st., will entertain at a family dinner at their home, Friday evening. Guests will attend the "Jenny Lind Concert" at Memorial Hall, following the dinner.

Sunday noon, Dr. and Mrs. Foster Robinson, 8. McCall-st., will preside at a dinner at the Elks' Home, honoring Miss Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, Lincoln-st., offered the hospitality of their home, Thursday evening, when the members of the Hereaux Temps club entertained their husbands at a bridge party.

Mrs. Earl Dorsey held high score among the women and O. G. Price was high among the men, low scores were held by Mrs. R. C. Kuhn and L. S. Irwin, who were considered. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harry Baldwin and Mrs. R. S. Kuhn.

The club will meet Thursday at the Elks home, for a one o'clock luncheon-bridge, with Mrs. J. E. Smith and Mrs. H. F. Whitaker the hostesses.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Laura Brown and John Miller, April 13th, at the home of the Oliver Presbyterian church. Rev. Otis Barker, pastor, officiated at the marriage of the unattached couple.

Mrs. Urban Goode, St. Johns-av., welcomed the members of the Bon-Tempt club, in her home, Thursday afternoon. Bridge proved the ever-popular past-time and at the conclusion of the playing, Mrs. E. C. Verbyke held high score and Mrs. Louis Auer held low. A luncheon was served at four-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. J. S. March, S. Pine-st., will entertain the club in a fortnight.

Members of the College Women's club will meet at the parish house of Christ church, Episcopal, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The program "College Days" will be in charge of Miss Mildred Hadsell and her committee. Tea will be served by members of the St. Agatha's Guild, in charge of Mrs. Clara Pence and Mrs. John Roby. Guest day will be observed at this time, the money received to be used in connection with the Loan Scholarship Fund, maintained by the club.

Mrs. G. L. Brunk, 1423 Lowell-av., was hostess to a group of friends at her home Thursday evening. Mrs. R. W. McCauley was high in the bridge games. Mrs. Brunk was assisted in serving a two-course luncheon by Mrs. H. F. Redd.

King's Herald of Trinity M. E. church will meet at the church, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. John Stiles, president, will preside. Mrs. Eva Keach Coon will have charge of the "story hour" and Mrs. E. J. Crall will conduct a "mystery corner." The children are asked to bring in their red school house mite boxes, contents of which will go toward the salary of Trinity M. E. church's missionary in Japan, Miss Harriet Howey.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames C. H. Cleveland, Frank Ramsdell, A. W. Garner, C. C. Mumaugh and W. M. DeKalb.

With the organization of groups of girls, sororities seem to have first place, when adopting a name and ritual. "Clubs" are rather passé, it seems, and the Greek letters have proven popular. One of the newly organized sororities is the Phi Delta Rho, members of which are girls of high school age. Officers elected are Miss Helen Halladay, president; Miss Evelyn Botscher, vice-president; Miss Mildred Butler, secretary; Miss Gertrude Hardin, treasurer; and Miss Vera Gilliam, business manager. A group of monthly parties and dances will be given by the girls.

As a compliment to her guest, Miss Clara Haus of Portsmouth, Mrs. G. S. Dutt, N. Jameson-av., invited a few friends to her home for bridge, Thursday evening. At the conclusion of the playing, Miss Esther Roberts held high score. A two-course luncheon was served following play.

Guests of Mrs. Butt were: Mesdames E. M. Hopkins, Van Kohl, V. A. Fisher, Helen Hissong, Ralph Kemmer, Cecil Schofield, O. C. Slater, Fred Boop, L. C. Fisher and Russell Cox. Mesdames Esther and Dorothy Roberts, Georgia Rose, Lucille Roush, Margaret Meyer and Catherine Kung.

Members of the Cynosure club were entertained by Mrs. Carl Snyder, Richwood, Thursday evening, at the Elks' home. In the bridge games, Mrs. R. D. Chamberlain and Mrs. Eva Snierick held high scores, and Mrs. Frank Pringle, low. A buffet luncheon was served following the card games. Guests other than the club members were Mrs. Madge Halston, Miss Margaret Halston and Miss Mabel Gonzales of New Orleans.

Mrs. Frank Pringle, Francis-av., will entertain the club at their next regular meeting, in two weeks.

Members of the Extra Nous club gathered at the home of Mrs. Ted Hlemers, Thursday afternoon, in honor of her birthday anniversary. In a contest, Mrs. F. J. Casey was successful. Tea was served at four o'clock.

Guests other than the club members were Mrs. Harry Morris, Mrs. Frank Crazmus and Mrs. John. The club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. John Grubb, S. Jackson-st.

Mrs. T. A. Welch, Lowell-av., will entertain Saturday evening in compliment to Miss Clara Zimmerman, bride-elect.

Mrs. R. W. Ballard, Richwood-av., entertained the members of the Cicera club, Wednesday afternoon, at her home. In a contest arranged by the hostess, Mrs. A. H. Whelpley and Mrs. W. S. Fetter were successful. After an informal afternoon of chat and music, refreshments were served at four-thirty o'clock. Mrs. Vernon Evans was an only guest.

Mrs. Joe Gorman, W. Grand-av., will entertain the club next Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Rose Agarter, who is a supervisor at the East high school of Cincinnati, will arrive Friday to be the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Agarter, Lakewood-av.

As a compliment to Mrs. L. R. Long, a Springfield visitor in the city, members of the S. S. club will gather at the home of Mrs. Scott McGinnis, W. Wayne-st. Saturday noon, for a covered dish luncheon-bridge. Mrs. Long is a former member of the club.

Judge George Quail gave an interesting address to the members of the Shakespeare club, at their meeting, Thursday afternoon, at the Public Library. He spoke of the Roman law and its relation to the modern development of law. Judge Quail's talk was one of the finest ever given before the club and it was characterized by many forceful and original remarks. Mrs. E. E. Everett gave a biographical sketch of the French writer, "Rochefort," and Miss Mary Elder, having for her subject, "History of England and France under the reigns of Queen Elizabeth of England, and Catherine deMedici of France." A discussion following Mrs. H. M. Crawford's paper on "Prospero and his relation to the Future Revelation of Man," concluded the program.

Another pleasing affair for Miss Mary Kathryn Poby, bride-elect of Dwight O'Farrell, will be the bridge tea to be given at the Hotel Argonne, Saturday afternoon, with Miss Florence Price the hostess.

Mrs. R. N. Neely, Brice-av., entertained the members of the Social and Literary club, Thursday afternoon at her home. Mrs. J. C. Vogel-lesang was successful in the contest and at four-thirty o'clock a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Blanche.

Mrs. D. Goebel, of Carey, a former member, was an only guest.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Lucille Woyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hoyt of Elmwood Place, to William P. Quigley, of Cleveland. The ceremony took place April 7th, at the St. Thomas church in Cleveland. The bride has been teaching in the public schools in Canton for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Quigley will be at home to their many friends, after May the tenth, at 1326 E. 55th-st, Cleveland.

Miss Rose Agarter, who is a supervisor at the East high school of Cincinnati, will arrive Friday to be the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Agarter, Lakewood-av.

As a compliment to Mrs. L. R. Long, a Springfield visitor in the city, members of the S. S. club will gather at the home of Mrs. Scott McGinnis, W. Wayne-st. Saturday noon, for a covered dish luncheon-bridge. Mrs. Long is a former member of the club.

Judge George Quail gave an interesting address to the members of the Shakespeare club, at their meeting, Thursday afternoon, at the Public Library. He spoke of the Roman law and its relation to the modern development of law. Judge Quail's talk was one of the finest ever given before the club and it was characterized by many forceful and original remarks. Mrs. E. E. Everett gave a biographical sketch of the French writer, "Rochefort," and Miss Mary Elder, having for her subject, "History of England and France under the reigns of Queen Elizabeth of England, and Catherine deMedici of France." A discussion following Mrs. H. M. Crawford's paper on "Prospero and his relation to the Future Revelation of Man," concluded the program.

Another pleasing affair for Miss Mary Kathryn Poby, bride-elect of Dwight O'Farrell, will be the bridge tea to be given at the Hotel Argonne, Saturday afternoon, with Miss Florence Price the hostess.

Mrs. R. N. Neely, Brice-av., entertained the members of the Social and Literary club, Thursday afternoon at her home. Mrs. J. C. Vogel-lesang was successful in the contest and at four-thirty o'clock a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Blanche.

Mrs. D. Goebel, of Carey, a former member, was an only guest.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Lucille Woyt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hoyt of Elmwood Place, to William P. Quigley, of Cleveland. The ceremony took place April 7th, at the St. Thomas church in Cleveland. The bride has been teaching in the public schools in Canton for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Quigley will be at home to their many friends, after May the tenth, at 1326 E. 55th-st, Cleveland.

Pastor Steeves Will Continue Free Marriages

The Lima Ministerial association met in a special session at the Y. M. C. A. at 4 p. m. Thursday.

"It was a closed meeting. There is nothing to be said," Rev. W. H. Howard, president, said Friday.

"You bet I shall continue to marry people free of charge," Rev. Warren L. Steeves said.

That's as near as it was possible to get a report on the meeting.

Rev. Steeves has been turning the groom's fee over to the bride with instructions to buy a Bible or a cook-book, whichever she believes most needed. The special meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the practice.

When queried Thursday about the meeting, Rev. Steeves declared it "must be a joke."

WHISPERING SAGE

By Harry Sinclair Drago and Joseph Noel—Copyright, 1923.

HERE THEY ARE TODAY

ACKLIN, his boss of the Double A ranch, calls on Jose Aracada, most powerful of the Basque gents in Paradise Valley. Jose is owner of the Basque Buena Vista and father of Mercedes Esteban and little blind Basque Buck Bodine, now owner of the Double A ranch. Jose and Acklin meet in the morning and Jose tells Acklin and later they plan to see the Basques of their water supply. Acklin rides to Jose's ranch for instructions.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

Acklin nodded in assent. "Well, when the night comes I want you to have your men ride your line. Don't let any one through. Keep your boys there for a few days. Pass the word that some one's running an iron on your stuff. That'll be excuse enough. We'll be safe enough then."

Acklin had not even reached home before Bodine had started slurring on his way to the ranch. He told Gloomy and his other men. And once Acklin had reached the Bull's Head, he immediately sent for Morrow, his foreman.

"Cash," he said, "we've been thick-headed. This fellow Bodine has put his finger on the thing we should have seen first shot."

He repeated their conversation to him.

"Well, I'm tempted to risk it, Cash. Suppose we string along for awhile. Let him and his men do the actual work. You just drop around about the time they are there—you know, casual-like—if you ever have to swoop to it, place the machine gun and some of the boys down to the Bonnet water-hole. We are having trouble enough with the calves. Don't tell the many things else in the wind to give them the word not to let any one through. Make Skip the straw boss down there. I rather fancy him. We can go that far without a hitch. If Bodine turns the water, you run a drift fence along our line across the valley. Straight east and west with these dead trees is near enough. We've got the wire and posts. Most of the boys will be back from the town tomorrow. You can get that fence up in a hurry if you have to."

STRUGGLING IN THE WATER AT THE BURNED HEAD WAS A GIRL; A MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL.

South road had reached him a day back.

The stranger sent his horse ahead at a hard gallop. He found that the spring had made a small pool in the willows. He swung to the ground and loosened the cinches, but almost instantly the animal lifted his dripping muzzle and turned an inquiring eye toward him. The stranger followed suit. In the shadow of the trees two men sat.

The older of the two, a black-visaged fellow, spoke: "Howdy, stranger."

It was Skip Lavelle, Acklin's straw boss.

"Howdy," Kildare responded in the same flat, tell-telling tone in which he had been accosted. His eyes took in the rifles reposing so conveniently in their laps, the soiled cards, and the interrupted game of mumble.

The man who had addressed him got to his feet.

"What's your name, stranger?"

"Kildare; Blaze Kildare."

"Yuh ain't a stranger to linger around here, he yuh?"

Blaze eyed him thoughtfully as he drew his reply: "Why, that all depends, don't it?"

He turned and started to lift the saddle off his horse.

"No use takin' that down, mister; yuh nill!"

For answer, Kildare pulled it to the ground.

"Now listen to me, muchacho," he purred. "I'm going to breathe my horse, and we're going to drink our bellies full of water before we light out of here. What's all the big excitement, anyways. I got a permit to cross this country."

"Let's see it," Skip and the other, Chet Devine, demanded.

"Now what did I do with that permit?"

He took his hat off, and peered into it.

"Oh, yuh!" He laughed. "Here it is!"

And in his hand Kildare held a derringer that had been strapped in his sombrero.

"Stick 'em up!" he said in velvety tones.

"Well, I'll be damned!" Skip began.

He stopped short, and instinctively Blaze sensed that some one was back of him; but he dared not turn around. Before Skip could recover his tongue, a voice droned in sweet and dreadful tones in Kildare's ear: "That's good! That's awfully good! It's your turn to elect a stranger!"

Blaze felt a gun-barrel boring into his neck. He glibbed with alacrity. With nimble fingers his guns were taken from him.

This detail attended to the man at his back continued not unpleasantly: "Take your hands down, and shake."

"I'm Cash Morrow, the foreman of the outfit these innocent little lambs belong to; but I can appreciate art when I see it. Shake!"

The bronzed, lean, sinewy Cash, for all his years, was a fit mate for the big man before him. Kildare grinned at him as Cash handed back his guns.

A freckled face topped by a shock of red hair appeared above a green mahogany bush. The red-haired one sized up Blaze.

"Say, pardner," he asked, "who are you ridin' for?"

"Why," and although Kildare answered the man with the flaming hair, his eyes followed Cash, "I'm riding for the Double A. If the foreman wants the right dope, we're nodding towards his horse, 'been getting our oats from the Lonely O' up in Monty. Old Ted reckoned I'd wind up here."

"Take him on, Cash," the owner of the freckles urged, coming out of the shadow of the bushes. Cash cut in: "It'll be forty and cakes until the fall round-up is over, Kildare. Are you on?"

Blaze grinned.

"You've sure hired a man, mister."

"Skip will tell you what to do."

Cash went on: "You better drift into the valley tonight, Skip. String out among the old Webster wash. Don't let any one through. Here, Kildare, you take my rifle."

He mounted his horse and rode off.

"Here's where the Bonnet got it."

Melody said gloomily as he made coffee for Blaze, Skip and Chet were asleep. "All this talk of losin' stock is bunk. We're just gettin' ready for another grab. I got eyes, and sense."

"And?" Blaze queried.

"No. We got all the land in the world. It's water this time."

As Blaze ate, Melody explained himself, and his surmise was more correct than he knew: "There wasn't a thing in the wind until this fellow buys in the old Webster place."

"The big boss and he's been gettin' thick. We're going to have trouble. If you're done let's yide up and have a look at the valley."

They sat in their saddles and smoked as the red-haired man talked. That's a big place there in the bend, just before Rebel Creek gets to the river," Blaze drawled.

"That's the Rancho Buena Vista. Wait till you see the girl that lives there—Old Ironside's daughter. She's the reason they named this place Paradise. Her daddy is the king-pin of the Basques. He's got a son, too. Always pullin' on the bit, that boy. Too much fire in him! Then there's a blind kid—Basilic. No mother either. Pretty tough that, eh? I knew the old lady. Wasn't any Basque. Guess that's how the Senorita gets her spunk. But wait till you see this Mercedes girl. Man, when I look at her I don't miss sugar. She's sweet. G'wan! you old fool!" he growled to his horse. "Let's go back."

"You go on, Melody. I'm going down to the river and let my horse roll around in the water. He needs it if I'm going to use him tonight."

CHAPTER V

A Chance Meeting

The first cool hint of evening reached Kildare as he picked his way along the Little Washoe. The water gurgled at his feet. He pressed his knees into his horse's sides and was about to ford the stream when the animal threw back its ears. It was an unmistakable sign. Some one was coming! Kildare reached for his gun. As he did so, he heard a child crying. He wheeled his horse and sent him along the soft bank about fifty yards to where the river turned.

A burro stood knee-deep in the middle of the river. Marooned on his back was a frightened child, madly clutching a fishing-pole in one hand, while in the other he held a string of small bass. Struggling in the water at the burro's head was a girl; the most beautiful girl Blaze had ever seen.

Neither the girl or the boy had seen Blaze. Suddenly the girl slipped, as she tugged at the line, and sat down unceremoniously in the water. Blaze laughed outright at that, and then, unmindful of his clothes, jumped in and picked her up.

He then waded out to get the boy. As he reached up his hands to lift him, he spoke.

"Here we are, Basilic," he said. "Don't drop those fish now."

"Senor," the girl asked, "how you know the baby's name?"

Blaze hung his head sheepishly.

"Why, missy," he stammered, "I just guessed at it. But I reckoned I knew who you were as soon as I saw you. I allowed he was your brother, too."

"How do you know me, then, Senor?" she pursued.

"Well, yeh see, a man once told me, that...." Blaze knew his feet were stepping on each other in embarrassment.... "Some day I'd meet a Basque girl here, with beautiful black hair.... and black eyes.... and nearly white teeth.... Yes, and when you do, he said, you'll know why they call this place Paradise."

Blaze regarded his twirling feet. The girl's long lashes dropped over her eyes.

"Virgin santa," she murmured softly. "But you say very nice things, Senor...."

"Blaze."

"Senor Blaze," she said.

LETTER FROM JOHN PRESCOTT, NEWLYWED, TO HIS FRIEND, SYDNEY CARTON.

DEAR SYD:

I broke off suddenly in my letter to you the other day, for Leslie has the most absurd ideas about one's private correspondence. She wants to read all mine and tenders hers to me to read.

God knows, Syd, I do not want to read her letters full of trivial commonplace and questions about people for whom I care nothing, and certainly I would not have her read my letters to you for the world. I wasn't sure like giving up my entire liberty.

I wanted to tell you about my interview with Leslie's father. It was a "humdinger."

He had me on the carpet that morning after I returned from that business (?) trip for about an hour, and he had me going all right. I wasn't sure there was going to be a wedding when I made a clean breast of the affair with Paulette.

At that, Leslie's father is a good sport. In the first place he told me that he suspected from the first that my firm had not sent for me.

In the second place he said he thought that I had haled up matters greatly. That anyone of sense would have known I was lying and that you were aiding me. He said that only a loving woman who wanted to believe would have been fooled by either you or me.

He said that was why he was ready to forgive me, as he showed him I was not very proficient in the matter of deceiving.

Syd, I told him the whole story, and he said, as you have, that I had made a consummate ass of myself. He said it more forcibly too. However, he continued that probably ninety-nine men out of a hundred do the same thing every day of their lives.

I asked him if he thought I had better tell Leslie and he answered no. He didn't think she would understand.

I gathered from what he said, although he made no assertions to that effect, that he thought what a woman didn't know wouldn't hurt her. I pigeon-holed that opinion for future use.

He assured me, however, that he would expect me to be absolutely devoted and true to his daughter after marriage, and he affirmed somewhat profanely that he didn't care a fig—for me or my feelings in the matter, but he would not have his daughter made unhappy.

"Prescott," he said, "I have never made Leslie's mother suffer one pang of unhappiness on my account and I do not intend that she shall sorrow because some scoundrel like yourself has brought grief to one of her daughters."

"Senor Blaze," she said.

Orpheum Has Vaudeville Bill for Week-End

DEVIATING from the usual Orpheum schedule, five acts of vaudeville are the attraction at the Market-st playhouse for the remainder of the week. Ella Vail, billed as the "Female Dare Devil," gives an unusual act in which she affords many sensations with her daring stunts. Abbott and White, writers and singers of popular song bits presents a pleasing act. Inter-mingled in their musical program are several witty stories, making it a real vaudeville presentation. Fifteen minutes of mirth are offered by Jimmy Rosen and company in a clever skit concerning the trials and

"Daddy" Is Heralded as Jackie Coogan's Finest

DADDY," Jackie Coogan's latest production, a First National picture, which is coming to the Sigma theatre Saturday, is unique in that it is probably the first photoplay to be written by the parents of a famous star, and for that star. But who better than Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coogan are fitted to create a vehicle that will best bring out the precocious charm of their inimitable child?

"Daddy" is said to complete the full revelation of Jackie's extraordinary genius. His preceding offering, "Oliver Twist," disclosed Jackie's genius in its tender, pathetic and wistful aspects. "Peck's tribulations of newlyweds. To Hayden and Burke goes the honor of a real comedy act of the "nut" variety. One is especially fine in the impersonation of an idiot while both give a bull fight scene from "Blood and Sand" that is hilariously funny. As the headline attraction, the Five Stellas present in a musical revue in which every angle of vaudeville is portrayed. Dancing, instrumental and vocal selections are given in a very pleasing manner.

The vaudeville bill will hold the boards until Sunday when Billy Allen, in person, and his company will open a two weeks' engagement.

Keith Vaudeville Offered at the Faurot

THEATRE goes in quest of good entertainment will find much to please them at the Faurot Opera House during the week-end where five splendid acts of Keith vaudeville are being offered.

Neille and Earnest Veronica give an unusual tumbling act called "Sea Shore Knockabouts," in which they display several difficult stunts. The scene depicts a seashore and the Veronicas amuse as real bathers, ending the scene with a sensational dive into the "sea."

Green and Burnett are black face comedians who entertain in a superior way. They are two hood carriers who stop work on a job for the purpose of executing wit and a bit of ragtime. One stages a crap game that is especially humorous.

Vivian Holt and Myrtle Leonard, accomplished vocalists, formerly with McIntyre and Heath's famous show, "Red Pepper," lend a newness and charm in their recital that is unsurpassed in finesse and artistry. Their voices blend beautifully in their selections of favorite old classics. It old Spanish traditions. The company composed of four artists was brought to this country by Pepito Granados from his native land and are all artists of unusual ability. Their repertoire consists of many spectacular terpsichorean novelties as well as violin selections.

William Lewis and George Kuwa. Another important member of the cast is "Mildred," who is just plain pig, but she is the source of much laughter, as she follows the young star about the farm.

Accompanying the picture will be Hearst's International News and a Christie Comedy.

GIRL IS HELD TO JURY IN ROBBERY

Pauline Reynolds Accused of Being Accessory in Theft

TELLS COURT LIFE STORY

Pitiful Plight of Ironton Girl is Detailed

A little brown-eyed, auburn haired girl is paying tribute to the law in the county jail, because she hasn't had the love of a mother or the watchful eye of a father since she was a tiny child.

It is the old, old story—the story of a girl making her own way in the world without the advantages of home.

Pauline Reynolds, who will be 20 years old in a few weeks, was bound over to the Allen county court by Judge Jackson in criminal court Friday, after she had pleaded not guilty to a charge of being a member of a band which robbed the meat market of F. G. Stump, 930 St. Johns-av, the night of April 6.

The waived preliminary hearing and was bound over under a bond of $200.

Judge Jackson explained that the charge does not mean that she actually entered the store and took the food and items which were missing, but rather that she knew something about the plans of the men who were robbing the store.

She has been in Lima only since March 25. Her home is in Ironton, but she had been working in Marion for some time, in a restaurant.

“SHE FINDS ‘FRIENDS’”

She told how she had met a man named Young and a woman named “Lucille” who lived in Marion and who she believed were married. They had eaten at the restaurant where she worked. The girl didn't have a large circle of friends. Her father and mother have been dead many years and she was only too glad to accept the friendship of these people, she said. They introduced her to C. W. Twining, Lima, who drove to Marion occasionally. They told her, she said Friday, that Twining was a fine fellow.

So, when the two came to Lima recently “Lucille” asked her to come and live with them, she said. He did so, but found that they were not married. Twining told her he could live with a “Mr. and Mrs. Twining,” so she went there with Twining.

“I knew I was doing wrong in living with Twining,” she told Judge Jackson, “but what could I do? I didn't have any other friends.”

Judge Becker may, according to Judge Jackson, send her back to Ironton and arrange for her care, so she may find a home—it is what she wants and needs—a home where, as time goes on, black memories of the past can be wiped out with bright prospects of future happiness.

LIMA AUTHOR TO HAVE MOVIE STORY PRODUCED

John Sonntag, 601 S. Metcalf-st, received word Friday that one of his moving picture scenarios, “Her Valued Love” has been sold to the Warner Studios and will be produced within a few months.

Sonntag is the author of several short stories published in popular magazines, among them, “Her True Kind,” “Maurice of O'Dal Place,” and “The Lantern in the Dark,” which was published in the Red Book.

A novel by Sonntag, “Just Men,” is now in the hands of the Magazine Publishing company of New York.

Luck On Jinx Day For Jury And The Court

“Friday the 13th” brought ill luck for some and not so good for participants in the trial of an action for farm rents heard by Judge Fred C. Becker, in common pleas court.

The suit was brought by John Shearin against Dean Cleppenger, farmer. The plaintiff was awarded judgment for $104 by the jury. Trial of the action lasted scarcely half an hour.

All of which pleased the court and jury, who had anticipated an all-day hearing.

“Lucky to get out,” declared Judge Becker.

The case is the first jury action to be heard by Judge Becker this month.

WOMAN WITH 10 CHILDREN ‘JUST STARTING’ CAREER

ROLESVILLE, N. C. — (Special) —After you've reared ten children, you're just started on your career.

Don't lose your interest in life at the age of 63 and sit down in the corner by the fireplace to doze and knit.

Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Rodgers didn't. And she's a mother of ten and 83 years old.

She's gone in for farming. And last season on her land near here, she raised—

A bale of cotton, 50 bushels of potatoes, six barrels of corn, more than 800 pounds of meat and laid down how many eggs or how much butter and milk.

She did all the work herself save the plowing.

“Why, I couldn't sit still and hold my hands,” she says.

PLAN UNIFORM SYSTEM OF AUTO IDENTIFICATION

COLUMBUS —Automobile registrars from Kentucky, West Virginia and Michigan were meeting with Secretary of State Thad H. Brown today to make plans for a uniform system of identification of automobiles in transit across Ohio to and from other states.

At present pasted-on tags are used and since these bear no number, identification of the machines in case of accidents is practically impossible, it is said. Requirement that dealers' licenses issued by the various states be used on the cars was one of the suggestions advanced.

CITY COMMENDS WOMAN JURY

Officials Appreciate Aid in Law Enforcement

Women who served on the jury in the Laycock trial were commended Friday by city officials “for efficient performing a civic duty.” Laycock was found guilty.

“With women serving on juries in criminal court we may expect to obtain some needed convictions,” C. A. Bingham, city manager, said.

“Too many offenders have been getting off because we have been unable to get the best type of citizens to serve. If women continue to show a willingness for jury service, we will be greatly aided in enforcing the law.”

Mayor Harold Cunningham, City Manager C. A. Bingham and City Solicitor Paul Landis went to the court and personally thanked the women jurors after the trial.

Women who served on the Laycock jury are: Mrs. Kent Hughes, 1231 Lakewood-av; Mrs. William Wilson, 718 Greenlawn-av; Mrs. Clinton Sealts, 746 W. Market-st; Mrs. T. G. Scheid, 843 W. Spring-st; Mrs. R. B. Tolian, 823 W. Market-st; Mrs. Russell Young, State-st; Mrs. Frank Boone, 1072 W. Market-st.

Cupid gave Allen-co a wide berth Friday. Only one couple applied in probate court for a marriage license.

And they refused it when they discovered the date.

“We'll be back in the morning,” announced the groom after his sweetie whispered hastily in his ear. “Not today,” he told Miss Jessie P. Miller, license clerk. “You see—”

“It would be risking our happiness,” interposed the girl.

“Friday, the 13th,” mused Miss Miller. “It's too long a chance.”

BLUFFTON BOY SCOUTS TO AID HEALTHIER IN SPRING CLEANUP PLANS

Bluffton boy scouts will be made assistant sanitary inspectors by Dr. J. J. Sutter, county health commissioner, he announced Friday.

The action is taken in response to a request by the scouts at Bluffton that they be permitted to assist in cleanup week, which begins Monday.

With their aid, Dr. Sutter states, it will be possible for homes at which no men are available, to be assured of the removal of trash and rubbish collected during the campaign.

Scouts will visit homes in Bluffton and recommend cleanup. Should their recommendations fail to receive attention, the cases will be reported to Dr. Sutter, who will serve formal demand.

Students from Horace Mann, Richardson and Irving schools presented the first of a series of five May Festival programs Thursday evening at Central High School auditorium.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used to purchase physical education and music department equipment.

Folk songs and dances were presented, and boys of the three schools gave a wand drill and other gymnastic exercises. The fifth and sixth grades of Irving school gave a May polo drill.

Four programs will be presented by elementary schools April 19 and 20 and May 3 and 4.

MANY FLORAL TRIBUTES IN V. W. BOND OBSEQUES

Furniture firms and business associates from all over the United States sent floral offerings as expressions of sympathy in the death of Victor W. Bond, prominent Lima furniture dealer, whose funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the First Baptist church.

Rev. Franklin Stiles, of Middletown, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. L. Steeves. Lifelong friends of Bond acted as pallbearers.

RESIDENCE FIRE TO BE INVESTIGATED BY STATE

A deputy state fire marshal will come to Lima Saturday to investigate a fire at the home of Mrs. I. W. Brentlinger, 614 N. Shore-dr, Friday night, in which about $100 damage was done to household goods.

Representatives of an insurance company and members of the fire department here, have requested the probe.

COMMERCE BOARD FACTORY COMMITTEE MAKES FIRST VISIT TO INDUSTRIES

Members of the industrial development committee of the board of Commerce conducted their first tour of inspection thru Lima industries Thursday afternoon.

The Lima Metal Foundry and the Lima Brick company plants were visited with the view to requesting cooperation of the county and city commissioners on the repair of approaches to the factory sites.

The committee plans to make similar tours frequently, to become better acquainted with Lima industries.

CITY PURCHASES 28 TONS OF LEAD FOR WATER MAINS

Twenty-eight tons of lead for use on water main extensions were purchased by the city Friday at 9.95 cents a pound. The first bid received Purchasing Agent Frank Hume said, was $11 a hundred pounds. This was lowered successively to $10.50, $10.30 and $9.95.

The lead is to be used as piping on 17 streets for which paving contracts have been let.

LAST ADDRESS

City Manager C. A. Bingham will give the last of a series of addresses on “Our City” before the League of Women Voters at the public library Tuesday evening.

MARKING SQUARE FOR NEW PARKING PLAN POSTPONED

Rain Friday morning postponed marking off of a corner of the public square by the Lima Automobile club for its proposed parking plan.

The corner will be marked with chalk until it is seen whether the proposed new method of parking is efficient.

If weather permits, the marks will be laid down Saturday. It was said, a traffic policeman will be detailed to the square to assist motorists in parking in conformity to the new plan. Permanent marking will be done when the city commission passes legislation putting the proposal of the automobile club into effect.

VETERANS PROFIT BY NEW LAW

Bureau Chief Explains Provisions of Recent Legislation

BENEFITS LARGELY EXTENDED

Many Receive Aid—Burial Expenses Also Included

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Veterans of the world war, a 1 to a limited extent those of other wars, are entitled to many new benefits under legislation passed at the end of the last session of congress, and clarify it today by the Veterans' bureau.

Soldier relief is liberalized by the new act, which amended and modified the existing war insurance act, the bureau stated. Many of the new provisions were sponsored by veterans' organizations.

Hines, director of the Veterans' bureau, said:

"One of the most important provisions of the new act is an amendment providing in effect:

"1. That every officer and enlisted man or any person in the active service under the war and navy departments, who was discharged or who resigned prior to the establishment of the Veterans' bureau on August 9, 1921, and every such person in the active service on or before November 11, 1918, who, on or after August 9, 1921, was discharged or resigned shall be conclusively held to have been in sound condition when entering the service, except as to such disability as was noted of record when or prior to the time he entered the service.

"2. That an ex-service man who is shown to have a mental disease or an active tubercular disease of 10 per cent or more, and such showing was made upon examination by a medical officer of the Veterans' bureau or other qualified physician, within three years after separating from service, shall be considered to have acquired his disability in such service or to have suffered an aggravation of pre-existent tubercular and mental disability, in addition to extending this period from two years to three years in mental and tubercular cases, this provision eliminates the qualification that the tubercular condition must be pulmonary to entitle one to the benefits of the presumption.

"There is also an amendment which extends the time in which a certificate of disability may be obtained by providing that such certificate may be obtained prior to March 4, 1924, and in another amendment it is provided that such certificate, except in case of fraud, shall be incontestable evidence that the injury or which it is issued was suffered in or aggravated by the military service.

"Another provision of the new act which is also applicable to veterans other than the World War veterans provides that where a veteran of any war dies after his discharge or resignation from the service and does not leave sufficient assets to meet the expense of burial and transportation of his body the United States Veterans' bureau will pay for a flag to drape the casket and also for burial expense will pay a sum not exceeding $100.

"There is another provision which is also of great interest to the Spanish War veterans as well as veterans of the Philippine insurrection and Boxer rebellion. This provision extends all hospital facilities under the control and jurisdiction of the United States Veterans' bureau so that they are available for these veterans suffering from neuro-psychiatric or tubercular ailments or diseases including transportation, as granted to those World War veterans receiving compensation and hospitalization under the War Risk Insurance Act.

"An amendment provides that payments of premiums on yearly renewable term insurance and converted insurance may be deemed not to have lapsed in the cases of those persons who while mentally incompetent and for whom no legal guardian had been appointed have heretofore allowed or may hereafter allow their insurance to lapse while they have been or may hereafter be so rated. This new amendment provides that the waiver in such cases may be made without application and retroactive where necessary in accordance with regulations which may be adopted by the Director of the Bureau.

"Those persons who were discharged from the military service without court-martial proceedings are protected in their right under the war risk insurance act by the provision of the new act which in effect provides that the right to compensation for the period of service from which such discharge is given shall not be barred unless a person was discharged or dismissed by sentence of court-martial. This act prior to this amendment did not contain the proviso 'by sentence of court-martial.'

CIVIL WAR VET REPORTED TO HAVE SCORE OF WIVES

WILKES-BARRE—(United Press)—When Charles W. Davis, alias Taylor, 73-year-old Civil War veteran, came back to this city to marry, he walked into the arms of the law.

The police believe that the list of Davis' marriages will run over a score, although it will take months to trace his history and there is a possibility that the entire story will never be known, as the aged veteran refuses to talk.

Letters pouring in from many sections said that Davis has been making a business of marrying women and then decamping with their money and jewels. The police say he posed as a rich senator writer, a retired doctor, or a globe-trotter.

HOW TO CUT TAXES

SPRINGFIELD—A sweepstakes of $5,000.00 in prizes, to be conducted by the government, to reduce the national debt and lighten taxation was suggested in a speech here by Sir John Harwood-Banner, member of Parliament.

NEW YORK—Further reductions in the rediscount and note circulation in the local federal reserve bank had a constructive effect on prices at the opening of today's stock market.

Further recovery from recent heaviness was made by the oil, automotive, rubber and the independent steel shares, most of the opening sales in these groups being fractionally above yesterday's closing figures.

The early buying embraced a wide assortment of shares. Gains of 1 to 2 points were recorded by such widely diversified issues as United Fruit, Reynolds Tobacco B., United Retail Stores, Industrial Alcohol, Mack Truck, American Water Works, United Railways Investment preferred, Allied Chemical and General Asphalt, American Express continued under selling pressure yielding 1-1/2 points. Public Service of New Jersey reacted slightly. Foreign exchanges opened firm. Demand sterling was quoted at $4.65 1-2, up to 1-4, and French francs advanced two points to 6.70 1-2 cents.

Prices continued their upward course through the morning. Lower rates for money with indications of an abundant supply available for stock market operations, higher sugar prices, record-breaking March shipments and further evidences of expanding business prosperity all contributed to the more cheerful sentiment. General interpretation of the recent reaction by commission houses as a correction of a weakened technical position was reflected in the heavy buying orders from that source. While industrial shares were most in demand, better inquiry was noted for the railroad shares, particularly the low-priced issues. Some of the outstanding strong spots were Dupont, which established a new high, Stewart-Warner, Reynolds Tobacco B. and St. Paul & Northern Pacific, the gains ranging from 2 1-2 to 4 points. Call money opened at 4 1-2 per cent.

MAY WHEAT GOES UP TO $1.25

Unfavorable Weather is Chief Bullish Factor

CHICAGO—With unfavorable weather both in the northwest and southwest and with an advance in Liverpool quotations, the wheat market here took a decided upward swing today during the early dealings.

Particular notice was given to the action of the Liverpool market, the advance there being in the fact of a decline yesterday in America. Dispatches from Liverpool referred to a good demand there from European continental countries. Chicago opening prices which varied from 3-8 decline to 1-2 gain with May 1-2 1-4 to 1-2 1-2 and July 1-2 1-2 3-4 to 1-2 3-4 were followed by a slight general setback and then by a sharp upturn all around. July and September touching new high price records for the season.

Corn and oats were affected by the wheat advance. After opening 1-8 to 1-4 @ 3-8 higher, May 80 3-4 to 80 3-4 @ 7-8, the corn market sagged a little and then scored moderate general gains.

Oats started 18 lower to a like advance, May 46c and later showed gains for all deliveries.

Provisions sympathized with the strength of grain. The wheat close was unsettled, 3-8 to 1 3-8 not higher with May 1-2 1-2 3-4 to 1-2 1-2 and July 1-2 1-2 3-4 to 1-2 1-2 3-4.

The corn market closed nervous 1-8 to 1-2c net lower, May 80 3-8 to 1-2 1-2 3-4.

SUGAR JUMPS TO NEW HIGHS

Boost Follows Arrival in New York of Price Probe

NEW YORK—(United Press)—Cuban raw sugar was boosted to a new high mark for the year today.

Two cargoes totaling 12,000 tons, were sold at six cents f. o. b. Cuba for June shipment, which is equivalent to about 6 1-2 cents cost and freight to New York.

This development followed the arrival of acting Attorney General A. T. Seymour to investigate sugar gambling at the suggestion of President Harding.

At this signal beet sugar prices west of the Mississippi were elevated to 9.30 cents. Seymour is conferring with federal authorities here on the possibility of legal action against certain supposed sugar gamblers concerning whose operations he claims to have full evidence. It is considered extremely doubtful, however, that this step can be taken.

Spit From Car Costs Cochran Exactly $300

Expectation is expensive—when one is driving an automobile.

That fact was demonstrated to James Cochran, Spencerville, better known as "Uncle Jim."

As he was about to round the corner at the half-way house between Lima and Spencerville, with his car, he turned his head to spit.

Momentary inattention to driving cost him $300. The sedan car struck the bridge near the Charles Cochran residence, tore away part of the concrete bannister and the car rolled over.

In the car with Cochran were his wife and daughter, and Mrs. Kate O'Brien, of Lima. None was injured beyond slight bruises.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Columns of Anecdotes About Home Folks

What is the funniest experience that ever happened to you? Write it out briefly and send it to the Short Shavings Editor of The Lima News. For the best contributed Short Shavings published in the week The News will pay $1. Full names and address must be signed.

F. W. Durbin, attorney, undertook to boil an egg for breakfast. He put the egg in the water, but lost his place in the cook book. Before he could find it again the egg was hard. "I like 'em hard, all right," he says. "That is one good thing about cooking an egg. It isn't easy to go wrong with it."

Earl Ludwig tells of a friend who bought a car and built a garage for it. He built it economically just high enough with no space wasted. But he forgot to allow for the thick layer of cinders that raised the floor level. When he drove into it for the first time he took the whole top off the automobile.

Elmer Fitch reports a fine display of sundogs at Manchester. Weather conditions were right and the phenomenon lasted several hours. No more sundogs are expected this season. Excited hoteling residents of Manchester will have to depend on the movies, says Mr. Fitch.

Jake Roush met a friend who appeared to be in distress. "I got up in a hurry and in the dark," he told Roush. "I tried to climb into my union suit wrong end to with my feet in the armholes. That's how I happened to fall over a rocking chair and get this bump on my head."

Walter Fleming was peering intently around a corner of their chicken yard in Wapakoneta.

Bob Stanton came along, giving his dog a walk. He wondered what Fleming was looking at. At that moment Fleming cried, "It's a police!"

Fleming turned instantly and ran. Stanton's dog ran, too. So did Stanton.

Something New Every Day On Brunswick Records

A splendid recording of Grieg's Peer Gynt Suite:

Part I—"Morning"
Part II—"Anitra's Dance"

Brunswick Record No. 2407

Played by the CAPITOL GRAND ORCHESTRA
Erno Rapée, Conductor

Conceded by many critics to be the finest symphony orchestra in any theatre in the world. A striking example of the fidelity of Brunswick recording.

Brunswick Records play on any phonograph.

Dealers have new Brunswick Records daily!

After Weaning —What?

Don't take unprofitable chances by feeding thrifty suckling pigs an unbalanced ration. Make sure your feed contains bone building phosphates, quality protein and is as easily digested as the mother's milk.

Purina Pig Chow

contains the growing, fattening and regulating elements necessary to put the pig on the market 30 days earlier than the average ration. Be prepared—see us at once.

Says Dangerous Varicose Veins Can Be Reduced at Home

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way.

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give is to get a prescription that many physicians are now prescribing.

Ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that it dissolves goitre and wens and causes them to disappear. It can be secured at any pharmacy.
